

HOLY TRINITY SCHOOL CELEBRATES NEWLY EXPANDED CAMPUS

On a cold, blustery November 13, 2003, Holy Trinity School officially opened their new 50,000 sq. ft. addition on their 37-acre campus in Richmond Hill. MPP Frank Klees, Mayor William Bell and Councillor Vito Spatafora joined George Rutherford, Head of School and Tom Jones, the Richmond Hill Town Crier to open the new facility. In his remarks, Mayor Bell paid tribute to Holy Trinity School and commented on how HTS is a main attraction for many new residents to the Richmond Hill area. Over 1000 students, faculty, friends and family were on hand to mark this momentous occasion.

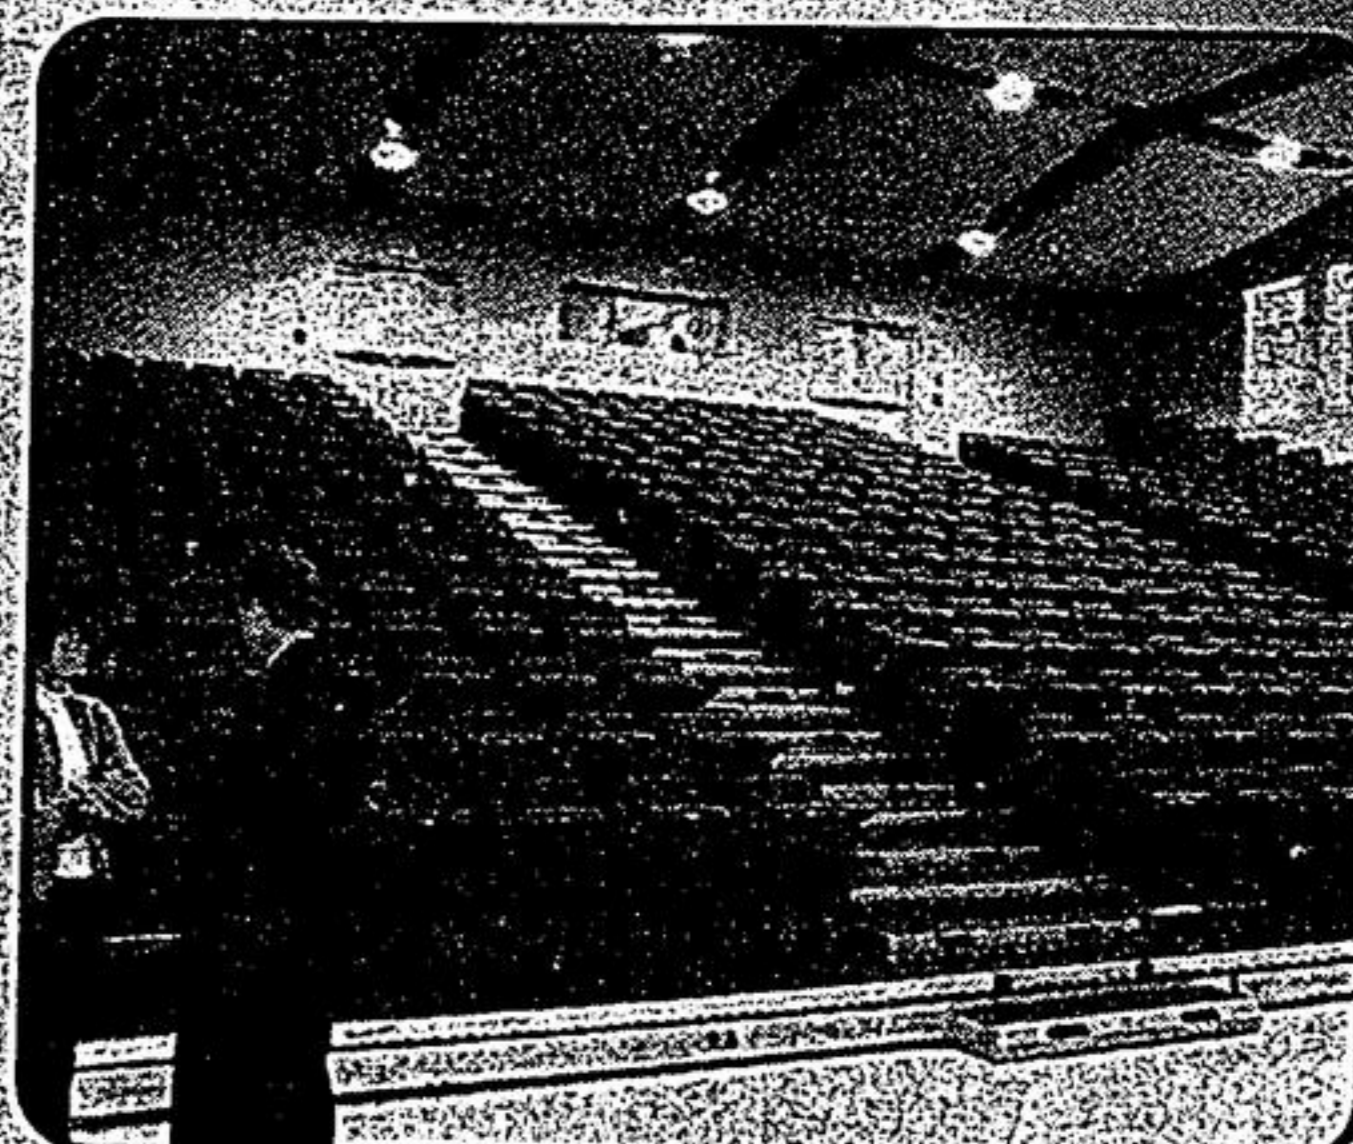

Holy Trinity School is a co-educational, independent day school with over 650 students enrolled in grades SK-12. They are proud of their reputation to continually graduate students who receive 100% acceptance into university.

The 37-acre campus now includes:

- Senior kindergarten
- A fitness centre
- Five new science labs
- A hot lunch programme in a 450 seat dining hall
- A state-of-the-art library
- Four tennis courts
- A 360 seat dramatic arts theatre
