

Mite select Clippers prepare for regular season

The Stouffville mite select Clippers continued to tune up for the start of their minor hockey regular season later this month by winning one, tying one and losing two recent pre-season tilts.

The Clippers received a two-goal effort from Adam Doren and one from Tyler Ryan in a 4-3 loss to the Vaughan Rangers at the Stouffville Arena.

Lukas Burkholder and Andrew Burrows drew assists.

In a return match at Vaughan, the Clippers turned the tables with a 4-3 win.

Taylor Peterson scored twice for the Clippers while Tyler Wright and Carter King added singles.

Jeremy Hughes earned two assists while Scott Carrick and Ryan had singles.

Facing the Pickering Panthers in a home-and-home set, the Clippers fell 4-1 on the road while earning a 2-2 tie at home.

Doren and Peterson accounted for the Clippers' goals in its tie game. Wright and King collected assists.

Andrew Riopel played in goal for the Clippers in all four games.
