

Streit earns top honours on Ontario links

Marlene Streit, a former Whitchurch-Stouffville resident who now lives in Unionville, earned top honours Wednesday when the Golf Association of Ontario announced its year-end player rankings for 2003.

Streit, 69, was rated as the top ladies' senior amateur in Ontario.

A member of the York Downs Golf and Country Club, Streit had a memorable season on the links as she captured the Ontario Senior Ladies' Amateur and United States Senior Women's Amateur titles this year.

Complete results are available on the association's website at www.gao.ca

Spirit bitten by Terriers

Christmas came a week early for the Couchiching Terriers.

The Stouffville Spirit outshot Couchiching 42-23 Thursday night but lost 6-2 in Provincial Junior A Hockey League action at the Stouffville Arena.

Stouffville (23-13-3-1) is in third place in the North Conference Couchiching (9-20-3-2) is in fifth.

Couchiching held period leads of 2-1 and 5-2.

Grant Buckley scored the first Spirit goal and assisted on Rob Groom's game-tying goal.

Neil Conway was replaced in the Spirit goal by Steve Carota after allowing two goals.

A pair of Terrier goals off breakaways broke the Spirit's back in the second period.

The Spirit, which played the Aurora Tigers last night in Richmond Hill, hosts the Oshawa Legionaires tonight at 7:30 p.m. at the Stouffville Arena before breaking for Christmas.

First-place Aurora (35-2-0-0) lost its second game of the season Thursday, 4-2 to the Newmarket Hurricanes. Both losses have been to second-place Newmarket (27-8-1-0).

Midget Stars lose heartbreaker

The Markham-Stouffville midget A Stars advanced to the final of the recent Whitby girls' hockey tournament before coming out on the short end of a 1-0 shootout loss to Durham.

After losing their first game to Vaughan 1-0, the Stars rallied behind a three-goal effort from Laurie McLellan to rout Brampton 6-1.

Single tallies were recorded by Joanna Ogilvie, Amy Lawson and Erin Carter.

The Stars then received a goal from McLellan to earn a 1-1 tie with Bluewater. Despite its 1-1-1 record, the Stars advanced to the semi-finals where they edged host Whitby 2-1 on an overtime goal from Ogilvie.

Stephanie Krucas scored in regulation to tie the game.

Sarah McCathie played well in goal during the tournament and received strong defensive performances from Emily Bradford, Heather Lotimer, Bobbie Webb and Lauren Chin-fook. Assists went to Lawson, Chin-fook, Emily Gamble, Lotimer, Shannon Hagarty Webb, Ogilvie, Carter McLellan. Strong efforts also came from Allyson Gaunce, Brittney Bince and Ashley McLellan.
