Klees like his chances to win Tory leadership

FRANK KLEES: Oak Ridges MPP expects competition for Tory leadership from other former cabinet ministers.

plan to enter the leadership contest. Meanwhile, Mr. Klees is also making calls to key people in the party and the province at large, including business and municipal leaders.

"I'm advising people of my interest in the leadership," he said. As soon as Mr. Klees formally announces he is a leadership candidate, he said he'll be on the hunt for new party members.

The quest, however, to become premier of Ontario begins in Oak Ridges. "It always starts with the home riding," he said. "I have received a great deal of support from my home riding. It has been very encouraging."

'I'm advising people of my interest in the leadership'

He views his chances of winning the PC leadership as especially good. "The fact of the matter is: I've been referred to as the underdog or the dark horse," he said. "But, I believe I have an excellent chance of becoming the next leader. I've had 28 years in the party and I've travelled across this province a number of times in a number of capacities. I'm receiving strong support from caucus colleagues."

Mr. Klees expects his strongest competition to come from Whitby-Ajax MPP Jim Flaherty. Also rumoured to be running for the leadership are former cabinet ministers Tim Hudak (Erie-Lincoln) and Cam Jackson (Burlington).

He was appointed to cabinet without portfolio in 1999 with additional responsibilities as chief government whip and deputy house leader. He was later minister of tourism and recreation and most recently transportation.

Currently, Mr. Klees is the opposition transportation critic and serves as a member of the standing committee for justice and social policy.

First elected in 1995 to represent the former riding of York-Mackenzie, Mr. Klees was re-elected in 1999 as MPP for the new riding of Oak Ridges. The riding includes Richmond Hill, Whitchurch-Stouffville and northern Markham.

Mr. Klees and his wife Jane live in Aurora. They have two grown children.
