Stouffville quilters branch out

The Stouffville Quilt Club is expanding from quilts to all crafts in 2004.

Now calling itself the Crazy Ladies Quilt and Craft Club, the group wants to attract more local crafters to its twice-monthly meetings.

Cindy Toner, who started the club last year, noted craft instruction would be available this year and members have a chance to learn various crafts from each other.

Members work on quilts, do scrapbooking, knitting, crossstitching and other crafts. As well, "it is an evening out", Ms Toner said.

The club meets in the upstairs lounge of the Stouffville Arena Jan. 13 and 26 from 7 to 9:30 p.m.

Cost is $5 per meeting.
