

Legion chips in at nursing home

Members of the Royal Canadian Legion in Stouffville visited Markhaven Inc. earlier this month and brought along an $8,000 cheque.

The funds will go towards the purchase of six beds for the brand-new long term care facility on Parkway Drive in Markham.

Construction of the $10.5 million home with 96 beds began in the fall of 2002 after the old building was demolished. The first residents are expected to move in in March.

Legion president John McCracken, along with first vice-president Harold Tillyer and the Ladies Auxiliary's Mary Hamerston and Joan Marshman, presented the cheque on behalf of the Royal Canadian Legion's Ontario Command and the Ladies Auxiliary Foundation.

PROVINCIAL FUND

Legions across the province support the command with money raised locally through dances, raffles, catering services and other fundraisers.

Last year, the command donated almost $600,000 to worthy causes.

The Stouffville Legion also supports many local groups, such as minor sports, the 351 Silver Wing Air Cadet Squadron in Markham and youth education, through public speaking and poster and essay contests.
