Sheffield judo students record impressive grades

Students representing the Stouffville-based Sheffield Judo Club took to the mats for two recent tournaments and fielded some impressive results.

At the Ajax Invitation Judo Tournament, an event for youngsters, Megan Peterkin went undefeated in her debut and won all of her matches by ippon (full point). Also winning her division was Tressa Sheffield, who won all of her fights by ippon.

Lea Sheffield lost just one match, while taking on boys in her division, and finished second.

David Chartrand won three fights and earned a bronze medal.

Fourth-place efforts came from Brahm's Bennett, Stephen Peterkin and Michel Rochon.

At the Kingston Military Community Open Judo Championship and Ontario Team Open Qualifier, an event for adults, Jim Peterkin was second in the masters heavyweight class for black belts and Brent Colclough was second in the senior men's middleweight coloured belt division.
