

Calling all artists to Latcham's 25th anniversary juried show

Latcham Gallery wants entries for its annual open juried exhibition.

The show, which marks the gallery's 25th anniversary, is open to all Ontario artists.

Artists can bring up to two works in any medium to the gallery from noon to 8 p.m. March 22.

The fee is $20 per artist, with gallery members paying $15.

About 35 works will be selected from 200 works expected to be entered this year.

The show's jurors are Vanessa Perry, a director of the gallery from 1988 to

Our Town

with Hannelore Volpe

1994; Rhona Wenger, director of the Grimsby Art Gallery and renowned Canadian sculptor John McEwen.

The opening reception is March 28 from 1 to 3 p.m. The show continues until May 9.

Cook Canada Inc. of Stouffville is this year's sponsor.

Entry forms are available at the gallery at 6240 Main St. or by calling 905-640-8954.

To further celebrate its 25th anniversary, the gallery is asking anyone who has visited the gallery over the years for memories of their favourite exhibition, work or artist.

With the help of visitors memories, curator Maura Broadhurst, will put together an exhibition of the highlights of 25 years of art shows at the gallery.

A list of all past exhibitions is available at the gallery, which is hoping to have responses by March 15.
