Colours of construction

Think a construction site is a bland place? Think again. Construction worker Ryan Mullett (top photo) watches as a crane lifts an orange steel beam above the sanctuary at the site of the new Stouffville Missionary Church on Tenth Line next to the Stouffville Country Market. Mud and water (left) outside the church make for a colourful mixture.

However, on Sunday, April 25th employees of Sun Microsystems of Canada Inc won't be working. They'll be walking and running as they join members of the community at the Markham Stouffville Hospital Legacy 5km Run/Walk. Stéphane Boisvert, President of Sun Microsystems of Canada Inc, PLATINUM sponsor of the annual run, notes "Sun Microsystems of Canada takes great pride in giving to the community. I encourage members of the community to give some time and walk or run in support of the Markham Stouffville Hospital."
