Gardener Cullen speaks at fundraiser

Gardening expert Mark Cullen will speak on gardening, not just a hobby — a lifestyle just before gardening season begins in Whitchurch-Stouffville.

This is the Stouffville Horticultural Society's major event of the year and will benefit the Parkview Home Building Fund. Last year, the society organized a garden tour of the municipality.

Mr. Cullen was one of the speakers at the Canada Blooms show in Toronto. He is the resident gardening expert on CTV and his TV show, Mark Cullen Gardening, is in its fourth season on HGTV Canada.

Over the years, the society has built up a roster of well-known gardening experts to speak at its monthly meetings, which are attended by an average of 40 gardening enthusiasts.

The society will hold its annual plant sale in May and is looking for donations of perennials.

This year's president is Debbie Reilly.

Mr. Cullen will be at the Stouffville Missionary Church, 6500 Main St. May 3, at 7:30 p.m. About 300 people are expected to attend. Guests are invited to join Mr. Cullen for tea afterwards and will have a chance to purchase an autographed copy of his latest book.
