

Stouffville's Stars score silver in OHL Cup

Three Stouffville residents were members of the Richmond Hill Stars AAA minor midget team that settled for the silver medal at the recent Ontario Hockey League Showcase Cup event in North York.

Forwards Cory Tanaka and Brandon Walker and goalkeeper Jake Balsdon were members of the Stars, who lost in the final to the York Simcoe Express in the 16-team tournament.

Entering the tournament as the Ontario Minor Hockey Association champions, the Stars reached the final with victories over Ottawa Valley 8-1, Thunder Bay 4-0 and Sun County 6-1.

Tanaka scored two goals and added an assist in the Stars' win over Ottawa Valley while Walker collected two assists. Balsdon was the winning netminder.

Against Thunder Bay, Tanaka and Walker each had an assist.

In the win over Sun County, Tanaka had two goals and one assist while Walker earned three assists. Balsdon played 22 minutes in net.

Del Zotto strikes OMHA gold

Stouffville resident Michael Del Zotto was a member of the Markham Waxers AAA minor bantam team that captured the Ontario Minor Hockey Association tournament title in Richmond Hill last weekend with a 6-1 win over the host squad.

A forward for the Waxers,

Del Zotto scored three goals and added four assists for the Waxers in five games and was tied for third in team scoring during the tournament.
