

Deputy chief cleared

BY JEFF MITCHELL
Staff Writer

Now that an OPP probe has cleared York Regional Police Deputy Chief Eric Jolliffe of wrongdoing in the cancellation of a traffic ticket given to his wife, attention will focus on the officers involved.

Police Chief Armand La Barge said he'll review a report from the OPP before deciding if disciplinary action against two officers at 1st District in Newmarket is warranted.

"The report will be the material I use to determine whether any other action is taken," the chief said.

On Thursday, the OPP released a brief statement, saying a probe had found no evidence of criminal wrongdoing in the affair.

The report says the decision to withdraw the ticket was made by the officer involved the day after it was given to Sue Jolliffe, wife of the deputy chief.

The OPP statement said an officer saw three vehicles go through a red light at the intersection of Yonge and Eagle streets in Newmarket Dec. 5, 2003, but was able to stop only one of them.

Ms. Jolliffe was given a ticket for failing to produce a valid driver's licence, a source inside the department said when the story broke in March.

The source said the ticket was cancelled later, when a valid driver's licence was produced.

The chief called in the outside force immediately after the story came to light.

OPP investigators confirmed the sequence of events and determined no crime occurred.

A Former Back Pain Sufferer Speaks Out...

"I Got Rid Of My Back Pain Forever!"

My back pain was horrible! I tried everything imaginable to get rid of it but nothing worked. I tried Aspirin at first, but it didn't work. It hurt so bad I couldn't even pick up my children without wincing from the pain. I went to my doctor but he told me I would just have to live with the pain and take muscle relaxers and painkillers whenever my pain got bad. But it only got worse! I was about to talk about surgery until I attended a free workshop which revealed to me the truth about my back pain and the best proven way to get rid of it forever! I haven't had one attack of pain in 6 months! If you're even remotely curious about how to end your suffering, call (905) 640-4440 to book a seat at the next workshop Thursday, April 15th at 7:30 p.m., at Stouffville Chiropractic Health Centre.
