Special cooking contest is now on!

Hello dear readers. Calling all cooks! Welcome to the Economist & Sun/Stouffville Sun-Tribune's Company's Coming cookbook contest.

We are giving away Company's Coming Most Loved Main Courses by author Jean Pare.

This is the official 20 Million Sold Cooking Quiz! Fill out the answers and mail, in an envelope, to the address at the bottom. We will randomly pick six winners from all those who send in the correct answers. All entries have to be in by Friday May 28, 5 p.m.

Good luck!

1. How did the recipe for A Round Of Draft in Most Loved Main Courses get its name?

- a) Beer is an ingredient in the marinade for the beef.
- b) It sounded better than A Rectangle Of Wine.
- c) It goes well with a round of golf and nachos.

Answer: _____

2. What is Beef Oscar on page 16 of Most Loved Main Courses?

- a) A recipe so good that it deserves an Academy Award.
- b) A decadent and rich beef dish with Jiffy Hollandaise Sauce.

c) The new Company's Coming mascot.

Answer: _____

3. Which ingredients can be found in Swiss Stew in Most Loved Main Courses?

- a) A neutral nation, a mountain climber and a yodeler.
- b) White chocolate, pocket army knives and clocks.
- c) Stewed tomatoes, mushrooms, celery and beef.

Answer: _____

4. For making Beef Bourguignon, peeling pearl onions is easier when you:

- a) Wear the onions around your neck instead of your pearl necklace.
- b) Practice peeling a banana first.
- c) Blanch the pearl onions quickly in boiling water, then peel.

Answer: _____

5. What is Buttered Steak & Shrimp on page 22 of Most Loved Main Courses?

- a) A grilled steak topped with a sweet, garlic-flavoured butter and shrimp.
- b) A new ice cream flavour.
- c) A name we give those big guys on the beach smothered in suntan lotion who cry when people kick sand in their faces!
