BENDING IT LIKE ...

If British soccer star David Beckham's mom had played with him like this as a child, would he have missed? In any case, Michael Finlay, 5, scores on mom Margaret at Milliken Mills Park Wednesday.

Issue complicated, MP says

reason they had problems. They'll have to do it if they ever want to get elected."

While newly elected Newmarket-Aurora Conservative MP Belinda Stronach didn't agree the party's fate hung on fuel taxes, she believes there is room for municipal issues in the Conservative platform.

"Reaching out to urban communities should be a key focus for us," Ms Stronach said. "It will be something I intend to move forward when the party has its policy conference.

"And I would remind Mr. Martin that as a strong opposition, we'll be making sure the promises he made — and there were a number of them — are upheld."

Richmond Hill Liberal MP Bryon Wilfert, a former president of the Federation of Canadian Municipalities, said the government is committed to providing sustainable funding for municipal governments but the province must also be on board.

"Everybody agrees with the goal, but the gas tax issue is not a simple matter of saying we'll give you the money," Mr. Wilfert said.

"It has to be negotiated through the province and the cities and we're not going to simply write a cheque to the provinces."

"It's not a question of are we going to do it, but how we are going to do it to make sure the money winds up in the right hands."
