Off-duty firefighter rescues senior

An off-duty Markham firefighter helped an elderly man escape a burning house Monday night.

Dave Decker, a 15-year firefighter and acting platoon chief, was heading home after attending his son's soccer game when he noticed smoke and flames coming from a Sir Galahad Place house in east-end Markham.

After stopping, Mr. Decker was told by neighbours an elderly man had gone back into the house.

FORCED OPEN DOOR

Mr. Decker forced the door of the house open, found the man and led him to safety.

"Dave Decker's actions shows the commitment that Markham firefighters have to the citizens of Markham," Markham Professional Firefighters Association president John Brassard said.

"Firefighters, although they may not be at work, are always on duty, even when they're not at the fire station."

When crews from Markham station 97 arrived, the fire was quickly extinguished. No injuries were reported.
