The next phase of the makeover consisted of cutting and styling Bev's hair. The challenge for Hair Stylist, Christina, was to create a fresh new look without compromising the length. "So, to say in Bev's comfort zone, I only took a bit off the length and put shorter layers around her face," she says. "This new technique in layering gave the result of a lighter texture that looks youthful and exciting. Bev's new hairstyle blow dries very easily and is simple to manage."

For the make-up portion of the makeover, Bev was taken to the comfortable spa next door. Make-up artist, Jennifer, applied a day look using the Pupa Make-Up Line. "I applied a foundation to match Bev's skin tone and to highlight her jaw line," she says. "Next I put on a blush, which defined her cheekbones."

"I was extremely pleased with the end result," Bev says. "I felt pampered and the staff was extremely helpful and cordial. I would like to thank the entire staff at Svengali Salon and Spa for making my visit so special. I'll always remember it."

Bev has received many compliments about her makeover from friends and family members. "The staff at Svengali told me that hair is as young as you feel," she says. "I feel pretty young with my new look and I'm very happy with it."
