

Revitalized Spirit tames Tigers

Head coach Brian Perrin called it "smart hockey." As efficient as it was, it was also pretty at times.

His jazzed-up Stouffville Spirit squad defeated the Aurora Tigers 6-2 Thursday in front of a large Remembrance Day crowd at the Stouffville Arena.

The 10-7-2-1 Spirit is in third place in the tightly bunched North Conference of the Provincial Jr. A Hockey League.

The Spirit outshot the Tigers 39-22 and scored a number of highlight reel goals.

"We played an energized game from the goaltender out," said Perrin, in his eighth year as Spirit coach.

"We were getting the big saves and the guys were making the sure plays. That was playing smarter than we were six games ago. And it all starts with our goalie."

Jake Van Allen, Carson Devine, Sean Gray, Michael Lombardo, Ty Raine and Rob Groom scored for the Spirit.

MCWHINNEY SOLID IN GOAL

Netminder Dan McWhinney had another big game for the Spirit making several huge saves, especially while his team was shorthanded.

Aurora's Jeric Agosta scored on a controversial penalty shot call in the third period. He was hauled down after a scramble for the puck at centre ice.

Randy Johnston, ex of the Barrie Colts and Ottawa 67's, had an assist and earned Spirit MGH Office Repairs player-of-the-game honours.

A pre-game Remembrance Day ceremony featured Stouffville piper David Baxter, the colour party from Royal Canadian Legion Br. 459 and Spirit anthem singer Jennifer Thunem.

The Spirit, who played in Orillia against Couchiching last night, is at Newmarket Sunday afternoon. Next home game is Thursday versus Huntsville.

SPORTS DIGEST

Simbhudas is gym dandy

Markham's Rebecca Simbhudas became the first Canadian gymnast ever to medal at the Siska International senior-level competition in Ljubljana, Slovenia.

A 15-year-old member of the Pulsars Gymnastics Club in Newmarket who competes at the junior level, Simbhudas won a silver on the uneven bars.

In the all-around competition, the Grade 10 Markville Secondary School student tied for the bronze with Francesca Bennolli of Italy.

Simbhudas was also fourth on balance beam.

Fourth-place debut for Morad

Daniel Morad raced off with a fourth-place finish at the recent SuperKarts USA Super Nationals Formula S1 division in Las Vegas, Nev.

Making his debut both in the senior division and as a member of the First Kart team, the 14-year-old Markham resident started sixth on the grid.

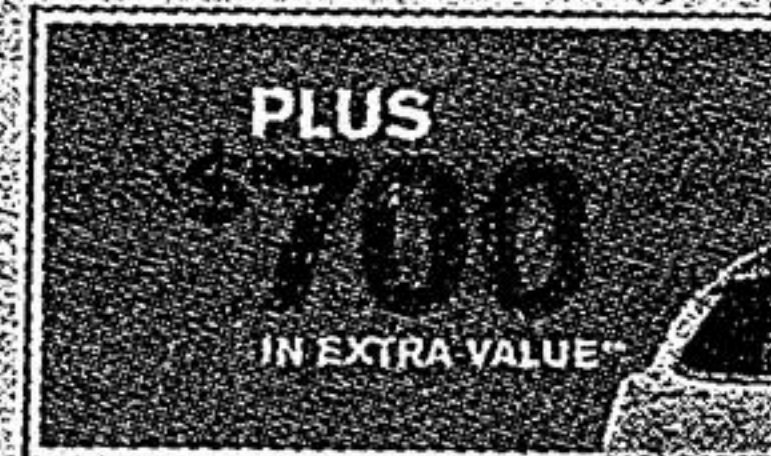

"I was quite happy for the first weekend," Morad said. "I am happy with the new First Kart and with the SRA motors. I think it was a good tune-up for next year. Paul (Lapierre, Morad's mechanic) and I are still learning, but we'll get there."

NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP WEEKEND

This weekend Morad will put his eastern championship on the line in Florida when the Snap On Stars of Karting National championship pits the best of the east against the best of the west for the national title.
