

Free flu shots at drug store clinic

Shoppers Drug Mart in Stouffville is hosting a free flu shot clinic Monday from 2 to 8 p.m.

Reservations are required. Up to 144 people can be accommodated at the clinic.

People should arrive a few minutes before their appointment to fill out consent forms.

Shots will be administered by registered nurses.

Afterwards, people will be asked to wait for about 10 minutes to ensure they don't have a reaction to the shot, said pharmacist Paul Kuras, owner of the Stouffville Shoppers

Drug Mart.

Shoppers Drug Marts across Canada hold flu clinics as part of their public service program.

Anyone who wants a flu shot should call 905-640-2700 to make an appointment.
