

Novice Clippers ice Clarington tourney title

The Stouffville novice A Clippers skated off with the title from the recent Clarington Fall Classic Tournament after defeating the host Toros 7-2 in the championship final.

FOUR-GOAL GAME

Greg Barker scored four goals to ignite the Clippers' offence while Mitchell Smith, Evan Smith and Chris Jarrett each added one.

In reaching the final, the Clippers defeated the Oshawa Central Lions 5-0, Clarington 2-1 and Oshawa Toughly 17-0.

The Clippers also received strong defensive performances from goalie Jake Murray along with Patrick Henri, Bobbie Lamirande, Mathew Avoleto, the standings after posting recent wins over Bradford 4-1 and Newmarket 6-1. In the win over Bradford, Evan Smith, Mitchell Smith, Owen Pearce and Robbie Armstrong each scored once. Henri, Jarrett, Barker and Spencer Roberts each earned assists.

GOOD GOALTENDING

Against Newmarket, Cameron Nowikow played a solid game in net for the Clippers.

The victories improved the Clippers' record to 15-3-0.

Four wins for minor peewees

The Stouffville minor peewee Clippers have been on a roll over the last two weeks.

Last Thursday, David Beloff and Curtis Crago scored to stake the Clippers to a 2-0 win over Aurora.

Steven Tait, Josh Machesney and Elise Acton drew assists.

Two days earlier, the Clippers received four goals from Robbie Acton and three from Machesney en route to a 10-0 victory over Orillia.

Chris Smith, Tait and Brett Hembruff added singles.

Joseph Palladino collected three assists while Michael Bourgeois, Connor Cadaret, Elise Acton, Lindsay Burrows and Hembruff had two apiece.

Crago and Machesney each had one.

In a game against Richmond Hill Nov. 14, Beloff scored twice and dished out two assists to propel the Clippers to a 5-1 triumph.

Tait added a goal and two assists while Machesney had a goal and one assist and Crago one goal. Elise Acton collected two assists and Smith one.

The victory came on the heels of a 4-2 win over Newmarket Nov. 13.

Machesney delivered two goals while Burrows contributed a goal and one assist and Robbie Acton one goal.

Tait and Beloff each had two assists and Palladino one.
