

New parents have hands full

the fun. They are also the parents of 11-month-old Tyler, born Jan. 31, 2004.

"So far everything's working out well," said David Wilson, owner of Wilson's Contracting. "It's going good."

Although the second pregnancy wasn't planned, David said that its good that the babies are close in age.

"We're having lots of fun," he said.

Having two babies less than a year apart has already proved to be a challenge.

"Tyler is very sensitive to the new baby," said Adrienne. "Each time Bailey cries, he cries. I think it'll take some time before he gets used to her."

Having two babies less than a year apart has already proved to be a challenge.

Having two young children at home will present many challenges, but Adrienne is optimistic that everything will work out.

"We have a very supportive group of family and friends, so I know everything will be fine."

Mother and baby were released from the hospital Jan. 2. Melissa Hamilton and Glenn Forde are the proud parents of Markham's first baby of 2005. Their son, Kross Xavier Forde, was born Jan. 1 at 11:21 a.m. at Markham Stouffville. Weighing in at 7 pounds 11 ounces, Kross, was supposed to be one of the last babies of 2004 according to his due date.
