Motus O on tour

Variations in Love, the newest creation of the Stouffville-based Motus O Dance Company, premieres at the Markham Theatre Jan. 28 for one night only.

The performance of short dances highlights the themes of love and love lost — "just in time for Valentine's Day," James Croker said.

The avante-garde company is known across North America and overseas for its emotionally stirring blend of theatrics, ballet and modern dance.

In March, Motus O goes on tour to New Brunswick with Variations in Love and an earlier piece, Petroushka.

Next week, though, the three co-founders, James and Cindy Croker and Jack Langenhuizen, travel to Deep River, Ont. to perform and to present a series of 20 workshops to elementary and high school students. In May, the company tours British Columbia.

Motus O offers a month-long dance theatre camp in July and a musical theatre camp in August at the Markham Theatre.

The Motus O founders have lived in Stouffville for the past 14 years.

Variations in Love begins at 8 p.m. at the Markham Theatre, at Warden Avenue and Hwy. 7. For tickets, call 905-305-7469.
