The Entrepreneurial Spirit is Alive and Well in Stouffville

A single mother of three with a demanding job needed change. Without enough time for family responsibilities, Cindi Ross started looking at innovative ways to improve her situation and realized a dream. Searching the Internet, Cindi found thousands of online stores, mostly in the US. Though most would ship to Canada, everything was priced in American dollars plus customs and duties. Even many of Canada's own online retailers listed their prices in US dollars due to the credit card processors they use. Using her unique wine glass gel candles as the innovative core, Cindi added a broader product line to offer unique and attractive gift ideas to Canadians Coast to Coast. And so, Gift Goddess, Canada's own online boutique, was born.

Gift Goddess is a home based, family affair. Cindi's three children help in making Gift Goddess a success by "bagging and tagging", taking inventory, packaging, or helping at promotional shows. Daughter Allison dressed as Ms. Claus to hand out over 400 flyers at Stouffville's Santa Claus parade, and more recently, as a bride.

Gift Goddess' mission is to provide unique quality goods at reasonable prices. All products are carefully sourced, and tested to meet high standards. Gift Goddess offers a complete native American line, a 99.6% natural, chemical free environmentally friendly skin care
