

Lots to do during March break

Children home from school during March break next week don't have to be bored or drive their parents crazy.

There are a variety of programs, entertainment and sports to keep them busy.

The Latham Gallery is offering art workshops for young artists who can make everything from treasure chests to clay sand castles.

Cost per workshop is $10. Call 905-640-8954 to register.

At the Whitchurch-Stouffville Library, the emphasis is on entertainment. Puppetry, mad science, a clown and music are geared to youngsters.

More information is available by calling 905-642-7323.

The Whitchurch-Stouffville Museum offers its annual pioneer program in which children eight to 14 make heritage crafts and cook in the pioneer kitchen.

To register, call 905-727-8954 or 1-888-290-0337.

Stouffville and Uxbridge Tim Horton's store owners are sponsoring free swimming in both communities during the break.

In Stouffville, swim times are from 1 to 2:30 p.m. March 14, 16 and 18.

At the Uxpool, swimming is free from 1 to 3 p.m. March 14 and 16.
