

Minor peewee Clippers defeat Battalion to capture Toronto Aeros tournament

The Stouffville minor peewee A Clippers took on the giants at the Toronto Aeros AA minor hockey tournament.

They refused to back down from playing the AA entries and defeated the Brampton Battalion 2-1 to capture their division title in the championship final.

David Beloff scored both goals for the Clippers while Josh Machesney and Steven Tait assisted.

Travis Gibbs played a solid game in goal.

In reaching the final, the Clippers defeated the Scarborough Stallions 3-2 and the Weston Hawks 8-3 before battling the London Knights to a 2-2 tie.

That enabled the Clippers to advance to the semifinals where they received a stellar netminding effort from Sal Rabito to blank Richmond Hill 3-0.

Scoring for the Clippers in these contests were: Beloff seven goals, one assist; Joseph Palladino three goals; Machesney two goals, one assist; Curtis Crago two goals, Elise Acton one goal, three assists; Brett Hembruff one goal, one assist; Jeff Leuschner and Tait three assists; Chris Smith two assists; Robbie Acton, Michael Bourgeois and Lindsay Burrows one assist.

Del Zotto named MVP at Ontario bantam finals

Whitchurch-Stouffville resident Michael Del Zotto, a defenceman with the Markham Waxers AAA bantams, was named the most valuable player at last week's Ontario Hockey Federation championships in Thunder Bay.

Although the Waxers lost the championship final to the Toronto Junior Canadiens 4-2 Saturday, Del Zotto was the tournament and club's third-leading scorer in the round-robin segment with two goals and 11 assists in six games.

He was also selected the Waxers' most valuable player in the club's second game 6-3 victory over the Thunder Bay Sportop Kings.

In the tournament skills competition, Del Zotto made his presence felt by recording the hardest shot that was clocked at 140 km/h.

He was also part of a Waxers' contingent with goalie Eric Mignardi and forward Steven Stamkos that captured the team breakaway relay event.
