- Attending local festivals and shows is another way of celebrating the environment. The Flower and Garden Festival planned for the Angus Glen Community Centre, 3990 Major Mackenzie Drive, on June 10 to 12, offers flower competitions, presentations and workshops, as well as garden and flower displays.

- To learn how to reduce outdoor water usage or how to attract beneficial insects to your garden, visit the Native Plant Gardening Workshop at the Markham Civic Centre on July 9, from 7 to 9 p.m.

- Adopt-a-Park initiative offers recognition for those who get involved. Last year, 27 groups successfully adopted various parks. Any group can adopt a park and apply for a $500 fund to cover the cost of cleanup and maintenance. The money can also go towards the purchase and planting of trees or park benches. All individual members of the group act as park ambassadors and are responsible for maintaining the park free of litter and reporting any vandalism. In return, the Town
