Warm up for the season and improve your game

Before you hit the links this year, there are a number of tips you might consider to warm up for the season and to improve your overall game. Practice is the key to cutting strokes from your scorecard, but knowing what to practice can be a golfer's biggest problem. Here are five tips that can help you tee off like a pro this year:

ference in the world. Make sure you take detailed notes — you'll need to practice what you learn on your own after the lessons are over. Consider having your lessons videotaped. It's much easier for you and your teacher to find problems with your game when they can be played back later on. And remember to ask questions — that's what you are paying for.

FIND A TEACHER YOU LIKE
There's nothing worse than working with a golf pro you don't like. You have to feel comfortable in order to learn the finer points of the game, and having a teacher you work well with can make all the dif-

PRACTICE, PRACTICE, PRACTICE
After fine-tuning your game with the help of a golf pro, try putting that advice to the test.

TAKE US FOR A "TEST DRIVE!"

You wouldn't buy a car without a test drive. Why should joining a private golf club be different?

Monday, May 9th, we're offering you a chance as a prospective Member to experience our private golf club, first hand.

10:00 a.m. - Clinics, club demonstration, video swing analysis.
12:00 p.m. - Bar B.Q. Lunch
1:00 p.m. - Shotgun Start
6:30 p.m. - Cocktails
7:15 p.m. - Dinner (After dinner, enjoy a few stories with noted golf writer, Lorne Rubenstein)

Cost: $95.00 plus taxes (Fully refundable when you join)

Reserve your place today. No walkups will be accepted and space is limited.

Meadowbrook offers:

- An exceptional 18 hole championship course that includes full practice facilities
- Also a 9-hole, par 3 course that's just right for working on your game and where family members play for free. Join as a family!
- An affordable initiation fee, payment plan — payable over 6 years
- Additional savings if you join as a couple
- A 45th Anniversary New Member Package valued at over $700.00
