

Gun used in robbery

A Markham Mac's Milk was held up at gunpoint yesterday and police are looking for the lone gunman responsible.

Just after midnight, a man walked into the Mac's store on Masseyfield Gate and pulled a gun.

He jumped over the counter, demanded cash from the clerk and fled once his demands were met.

He's described as black, six feet, thin, with a Jamaican accent. He wore baggy pants, a dark-hooded sweatshirt with a white insignia on the left chest

Man slashed during home invasion

An attempted home invasion Thursday turned violent and left a Markham man with a nasty slash on his leg.

The 19-year-old victim returned home from work around 9 p.m. to find two men in the vestibule of his Upton Crescent home.

They said they were in the area fundraising, but suddenly grabbed him by the throat.

A few more men entered the vestibule and one pulled a knife.

A struggle ensued and the man was slashed on the leg.

The men took off. They are all described as East Indian, 17 to 20 years of age.

This was not a random act, police said.
