

Ride of the century

STAFF PHOTOS/MIKE BARRETT

Alice Reesor celebrated her 100th birthday Saturday with friends and family, including son Ivan. The festivities included a horse and buggy ride along Main Street Stouffville from her apartment at Buckingham Manor.

Not every home has an address. But we can still find them. The ones who are fighting a mental disorder, an addiction or just a really bad run of luck. And when we do, we make sure they have food, clothing and a real roof over their head. That's a call few can afford to miss. Please, give generously to The Salvation Army.

Please open your heart for those working to make your community a better place for all. For more information please call: 416-335-8618.
