Bending over backwards to succeed

Stouffville District Secondary School's Bruce Preston is successful in clearing the high jump bar during last week's midget boys' competition in the Ontario Federation of School Athletic Associations Central Regional qualifying track and field meet at York University.

Castle takes second in CJGA event

James Castle carded a two-round total of 145 to earn a second-place finish in the boys' 17-19 age group division in last weekend's Canadian Junior Golf Association Orion Securities Junior Classic at Diamondback Golf Club in Richmond Hill.

The 18-year-old Stouffville resident fired a two-over par 74 on the first day and a 71 in Sunday's final round.

Adam McCauley, 18, of Oakville won the division with a 144 (74-70).

In the boys 14-16 division, Adam Craig finished in a tie for 17th place with a two-round score of 163.

The 16-year-old Stouffville resident carded a 10-over par

82 on the first day and an 81 on the second day.

In the same division, Matthew Easter of Stouffville finished in a two-way tie for 36th place.

Easter, 15, carded a two-round 181 (89-92).

Adam Petrasovic, 16, of Tecumseh, won the division with a 149 (74-75).

Three-game spin halted by Mennos

The Stouffville Mennos snapped a three-game losing streak Monday with a resounding 9-0 road win over the Markham Majors in Oshawa City and District Fastball League action at Centennial Park in Markham.

The tone of the game was set in the first inning when Scott Eyre and Jeff Boadway singled. Combined with two Majors' errors, a walk, wild pitch and a hit batsmen, the Mennos erupted for four runs and never looked back.

The Mennos added a run in the second inning on a four-base error by a Majors' outfielder.

The Mennos rounded out the scoring with a run in the fourth and three in the fifth, buoyed by a triple from Shawn Boadway.

The game was then called on the mercy rule.

Byron Baranieski tossed five innings of two-hit ball and struck out seven batters to earn the victory.

Last week, the Mennos took to the ball diamond for two contests and came out on the short end in each.

WOLVERINES 6, MENNOS 3

The Mennos suffered a 6-3 loss to the Scarborough Wolverines, the defending Canadian 23-and-under junior champions, Thursday.

Rick Burkholder collected three hits and stole two bases for the Mennos while Rob Reesor had a run-scoring triple.

Scott Evans tossed four innings and gave up three runs, of which just one was earned, to take the loss.

LAKE SIMCOE 9, MENNOS 8

Playing in Keswick a week ago Tuesday, the Mennos failed to hold a lead against Lake Simcoe, who scored a run in the eighth and ninth innings to prevail 9-8.

Jeff Boadway smacked a two-run round tripper for the Mennos, who trailed 7-3 through five innings. They erupted for five runs to take an 8-7 lead before relinquishing it.

Terry Reesor tossed three innings of relief for Baranieski, who started the game, and absorbed the loss.

The two losses came on the heels of an 8-4 loss to the visiting Bradford Sox May 19.

The Mennos scored twice in the first and added single runs in the sixth on a solo homer by Rob Reesor, and once in the seventh inning.

Baranieski worked the first five innings and surrendered six runs off eight hits to take the loss for the Mennos.

Now 2-4-1 in league play, the Mennos return to the diamond tonight when they are scheduled to host Newmarket at Memorial Park starting at 8:45 p.m.
