

Telephone scam warning

There's a new phone scam going around that can give criminals access to residents' telephone lines.

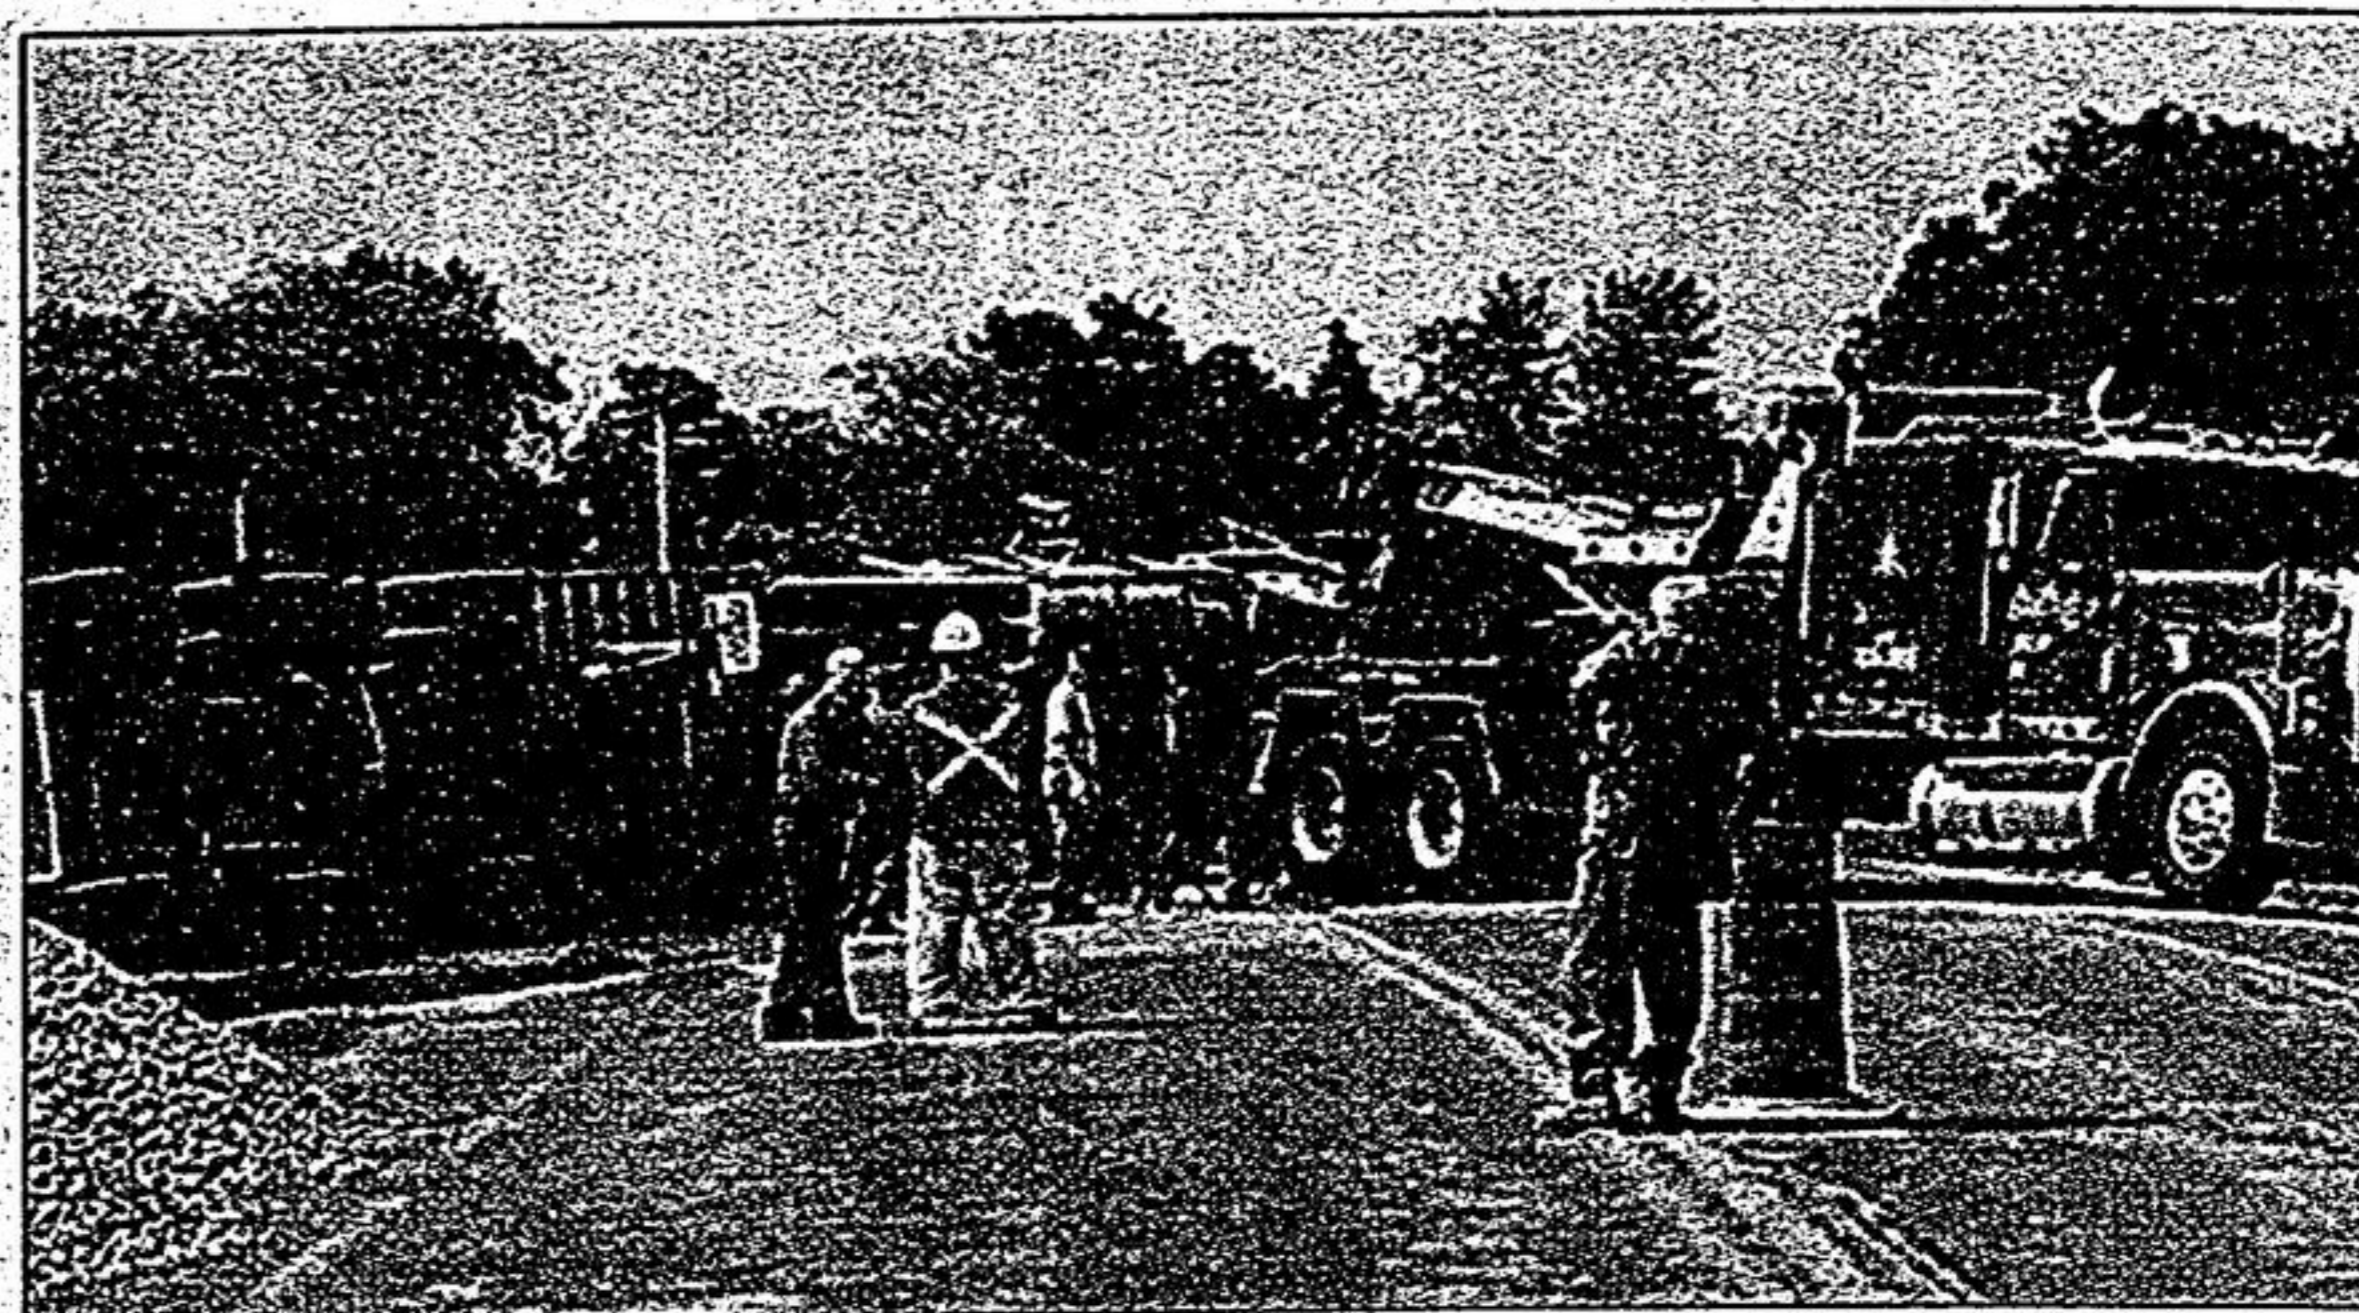

Whitchurch-Stouffville Councillor Phil Bannon is cautioning residents to be suspicious of callers asking them to push a series of numbers on their phones before hanging up.

Mr. Bannon was one of the people contacted by someone claiming to be a Bell Canada service technician who said he was conducting a test on local telephone lines.

After checking with Bell Canada, Mr. Bannon was told the telephone company does not do such tests.
