

Bowes, Rae win gold medals

from the 55+ York Region Summer Games.

Around 550 seniors from all nine York Region municipalities took part in the three-week event formerly known as the York Region Senior Games. The games are run by seniors for seniors.

The Silver Jubilee Seniors Club of Stouffville hosted a cribbage tournament May 27 while the Stouffville Lawn Bowling Club was the site of the June 8 lawn bowling competition.

Gold medals were won by Harry Bowes and Jim Rae in contract bridge at the Aurora Seniors' Centre and by Wilf Morley in the men's prediction walk around Toogood Pond in Unionville. Mr. Morley's wife, Nelda, garnered a bronze medal for the women's prediction walk.

The card-playing team of Harry Bowes and Jim Rae won a bronze medal in the cribbage tournament at Latham Hall.

Three dedicated lawn bowlers from Stouffville, Elmer Farthing, Allan Badgery and Ron Gibson, came away with a silver medal in the summer sport. Three lawn bowling teams from Stouffville competed with teams from throughout York Region.

Stouffville swimmer Rudy Niessink won two gold medals in Newmarket — for the sprint and prediction swims.

More than 175 seniors, including six from Stouffville, were at the games' closing ceremonies in Newmarket.

Every other year, medal winners can participate in an Ontario-wide competition called Actifest. The Ontario winners go on to national competition.
