

Canada Day, the bowling way

Bob Stover of Stouffville (left) and Carol Shropshire of Richmond Hill herd balls after an end during the 16th annual Stouffville Strawberry Festival lawn bowling tournament Thursday afternoon. Twenty-three person teams from Toronto, York and Durham participated, with Agincourt trios grabbing the top two spots. Ms Shropshire's team won one of its three games, but earned a prize for the highest single-game score.

Tournament brings lawn bowlers from GTA to celebrate nation's birthday

Ron Gibson of Stouffville gives hand signals to a teammate.

*Photography
by Sjoerd Witteveen*

Tourney chairperson Doris Farthing (right) and Strawberry Festival chairperson Sandra Stronach survey the tournament field on the Memorial Park greens in downtown Stouffville.