

Jones Pools halt Mennos' winning streak

The Stouffville Mennos saw its 10-game Oshawa City and District Fastball League winning streak come to an end last Thursday when they suffered a 6-1 loss to the Stouffville Jones Pools Juniors at Memorial Park.

The Mennos scored a lone run in the fifth inning on a run-scoring single by Scott Evans.

Byron Baranieski was the starting pitcher for the Mennos and surrendered four runs in three innings to take the loss.

Nick Dambrosio collected three singles for Jones Pools while Rob Clayton and Kevin Hackert each drove in two runs. Joe German was the winning pitcher.

Last weekend, the Mennos went to Quebec to take part in a tournament in Shawville and advanced to the final against the host club before settling for second place in a game that was mirrored by a rain delay and lasted just one inning.

Although the contest was scoreless, Shawville was awarded the game because they entered the final with an undefeated record.

In reaching the final, the Mennos defeated the Stittsville 56ers 6-2 while losing to a junior all-star team from St. Leonard, Quebec 8-0. After rebounding to defeat Stittsville in a forfeit, the Mennos gained a measure of revenge against St. Leonard and prevailed 4-1 to reach the final.

In that game, Scott Evans fanned 11 batters and gave up just three hits to earn the win.

Evans also helped his cause at the plate by belting a two-run homer in the first inning. Brett Boyd also swatted a home run in the sixth inning.

The Mennos will host Lake Simcoe tonight at Memorial Park at 8:45 p.m.

Burkholder fields a new position

BY JIM THOMAS
Correspondent

Richard Burkholder, player/coach with the Stouffville Mennos in the Oshawa City and District Fastball League, has agreed to an added responsibility.

He is now an Ontario Amateur Softball Association convenor, an appointment made official earlier this month when Stouffville hosted the Peeewe Elimination Tournament.

It was Mary Myers of Vandorf, a long-time Whitchurch-Stouffville softball promoter, who broached the subject to Burkholder last spring. He immediately accepted, but the assignment didn't take effect until July 1.

Burkholder, 32, will be expected to oversee all tournament play within his district.

He will also attend the OASA annual meeting in Kitchener this fall.

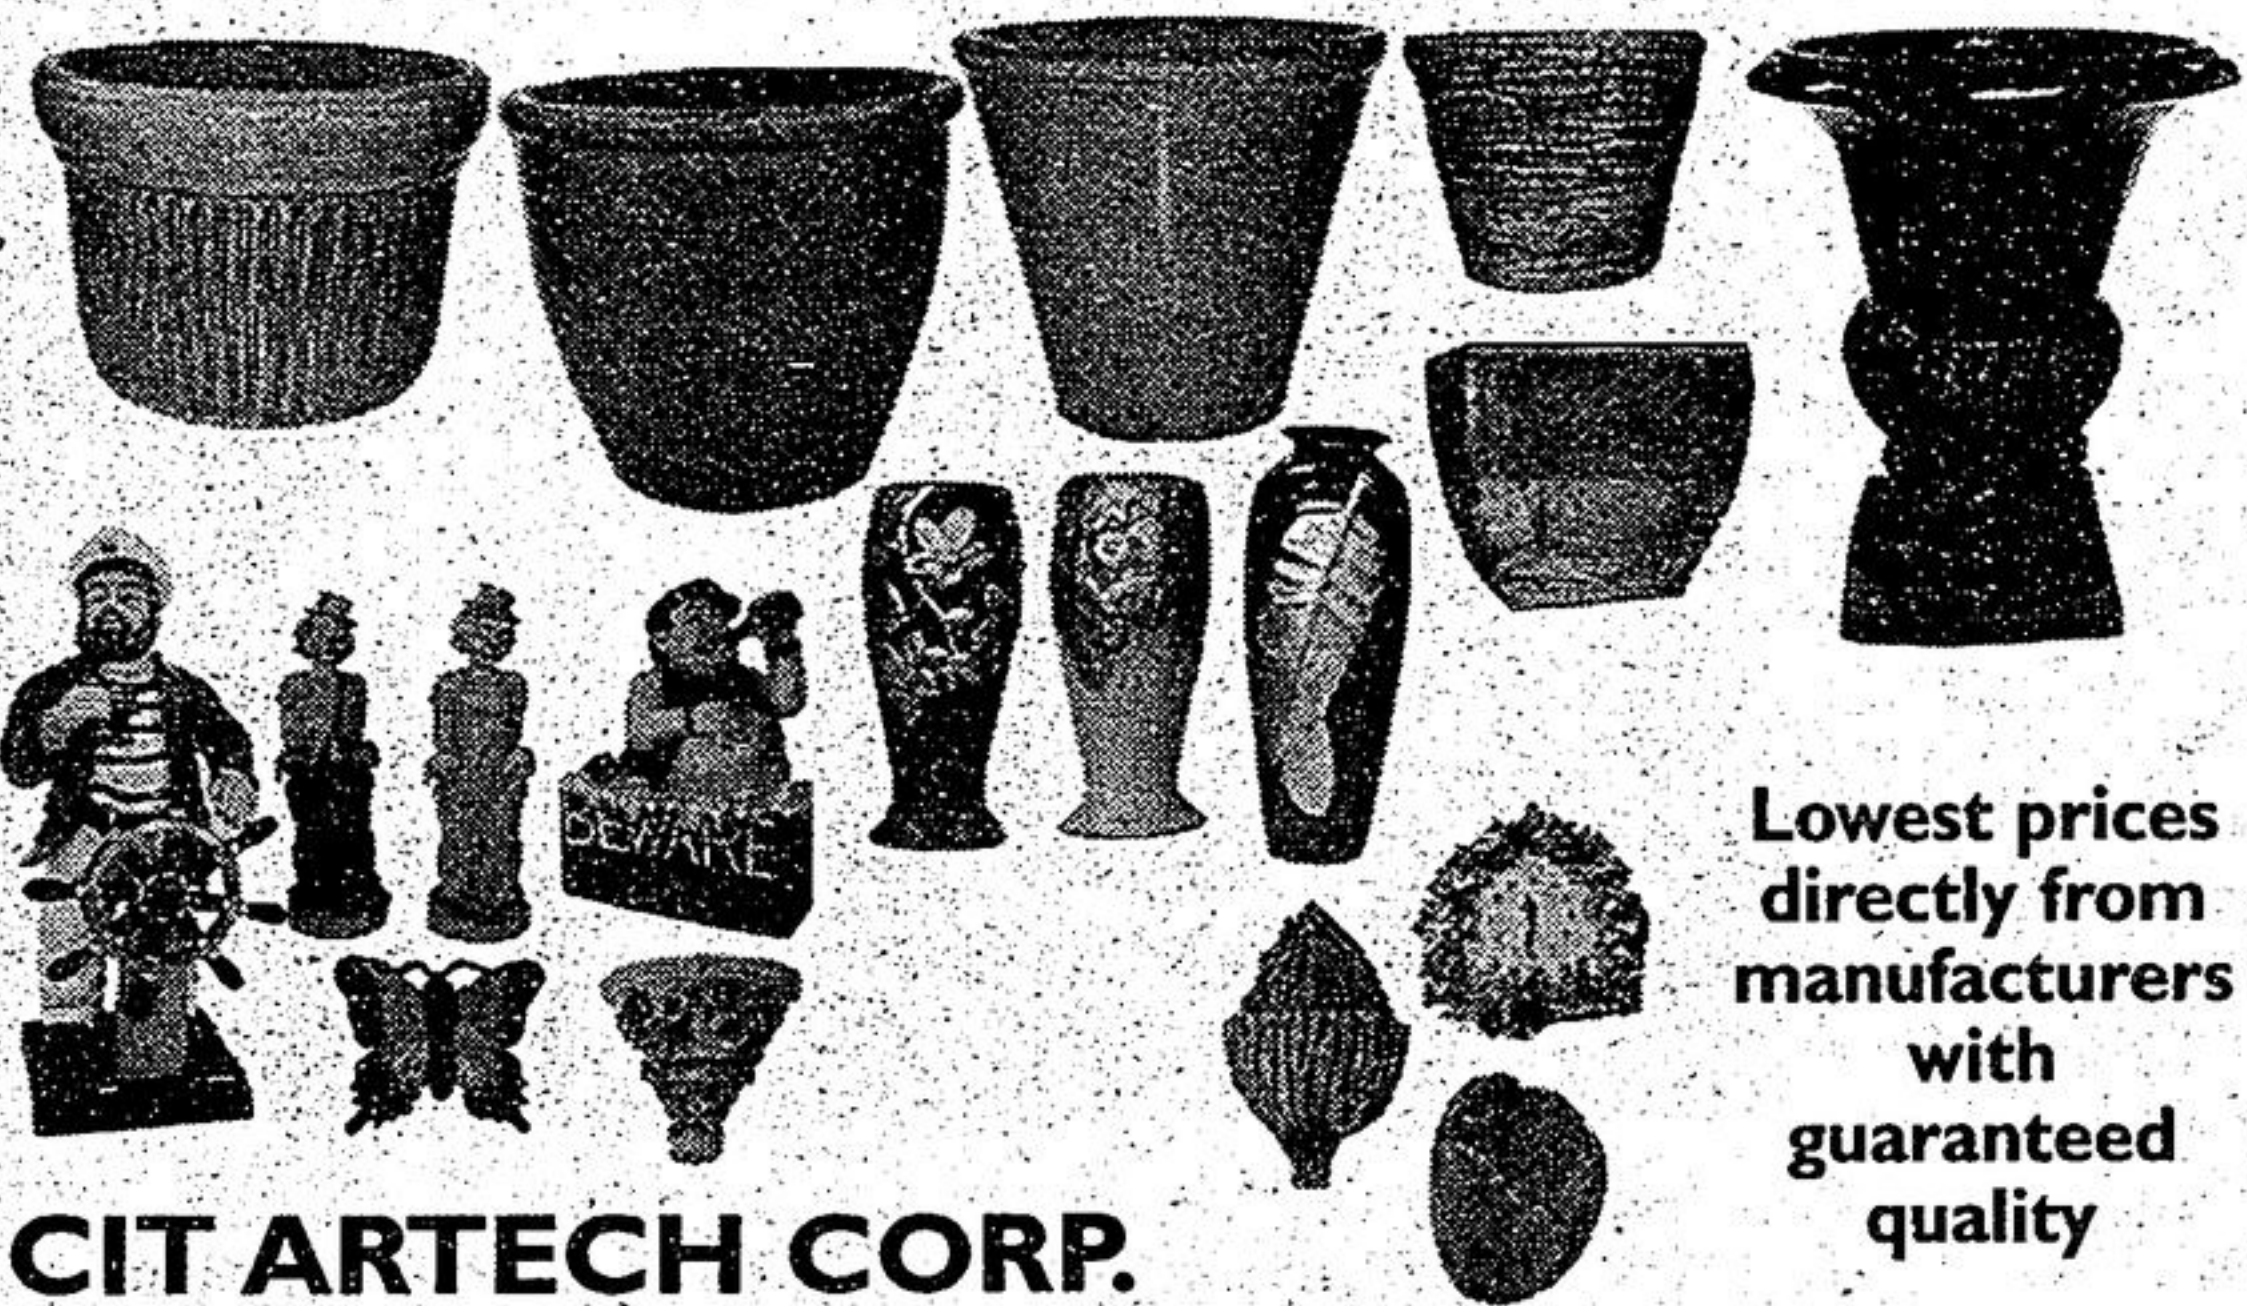

"It's an honour," he said, "I'm glad to give something back to a game that's given so much to me."

His father, Howie Burkholder, is a third base coach with the Mennos. An older brother Chris, also plays for the team.
