

Actor believes in message of film Cyber Seduction

BY ANNE SALVAGNA

Jake Scott has been in movies before, but never one with such a hard-hitting message.

The 12-year-old Whitchurch Highlands Public School student landed a part in Cyber Seduction: His Secret Life, a LifeTime Network project, filmed in Toronto.

For Jake, who played Freddy Trump Jr. in The Unauthorized Trump Story and Woody Harrelson and Julie Ann Moore's son in The Prize Winner of Defiance, Ohio, Cyber Seduction makes an important point.

Interviewed on the set, the mature young actor was more than willing to offer his views on the film, in which he plays Alex Peterson, a younger brother to Justin Peterson, played by Jeremy Sumpter.

"I think this is a good film to make because it will show that pornography isn't reality and that sex should be between people who are in love," he said, adding parents should speak to their children about the sensitive topic of Internet pornography show in the film.

'We needed to choose an actor who had the maturity to understand the sensitive content of the film.'

In Cyber Seduction, Mr. Sumpter's character stumbles across an Internet porn site, a discovery that disrupts his family.

"Everyone with kids should watch this film because there is a good message in this film and parents should talk to their kids about this film," Jake said. "Parents have to get involved and stay involved in their kids' lives."

Shari Quallenberg of Artists Management Inc., who has represented Jake for the past six years, described Jake as "a bright young man with a bright future ahead".

Michael Bremer, executive producer of Cyber Seduction, said casting the role Jake landed was one on the most difficult.

"We needed to choose an actor who had the maturity to understand the sensitive content of the film. Jake demonstrated to us at his auditions a full understanding of what the film was about. This along with his acting abilities clinched the role for Jake," Mr. Bremer said.

Jake was selected by his principal and teachers at Whitchurch Highlands to attend a leadership camp. The elite camp is for students who display leadership qualities in their fields.
