Stanley posing for pictures

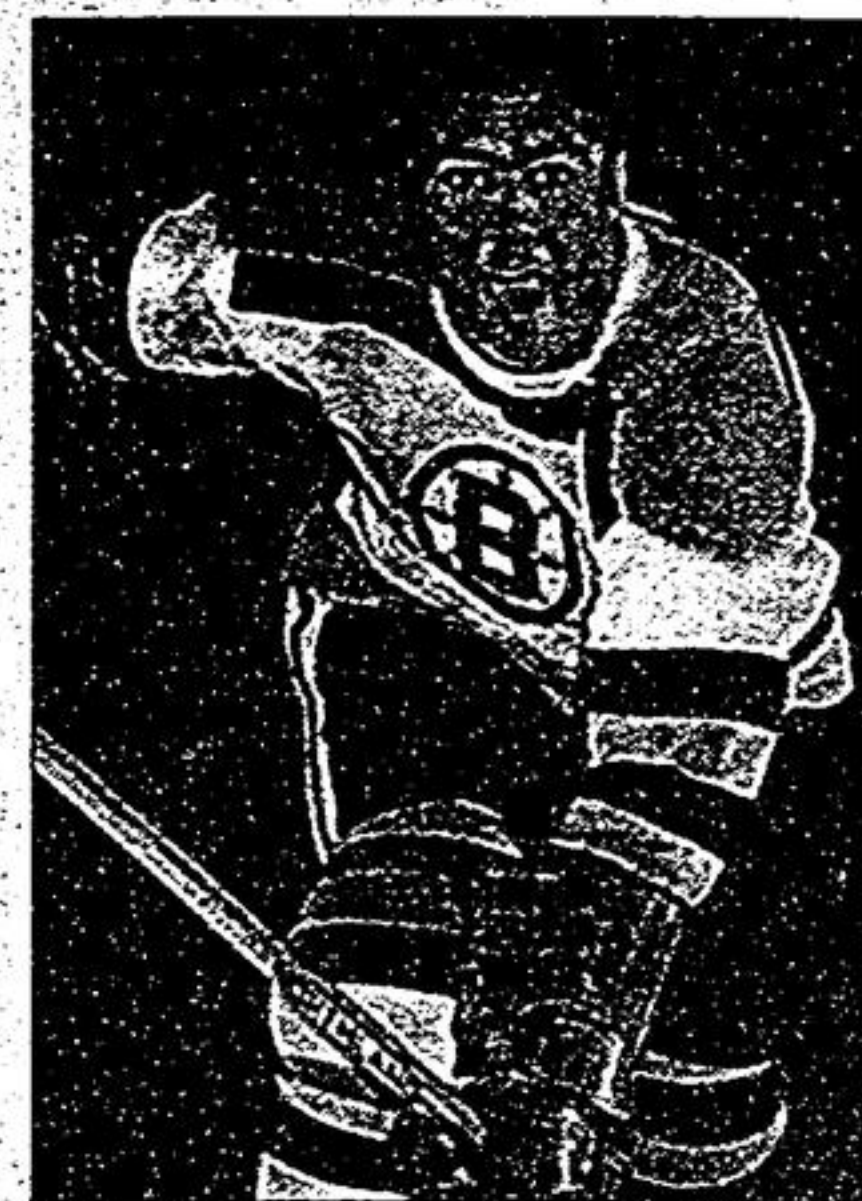

Lord Stanley is coming to Markham.

The Stanley Cup that is. Known as the Holy Grail of the National Hockey League, the Stanley Cup will be on display at Sir Richard W. Scott Elementary School, 90 Roxbury St., Friday from 10:30 to 11:45 a.m.

Fleming Mackell has the trophy for the day, part of a program recognizing players from the Original Six era who were on Stanley Cup teams.

A member of the Toronto Maple Leafs Cup-winning teams of 1948-49 and 1950-51, Mr. Mackell will share the trophy for a part of the day with his daughter, Kathy Hutton.

As incoming principal of Sir Richard W. Scott, Ms Hutton has invited staff, students, parents and other Markham residents to have their picture taken with the Cup. They can also meet her dad, who also played for the Boston Bruins from 1951 to 1960.

Donations will go to the school sports programs and gymnasium equipment.

THE ONLY KIND OF A DEAL WE BELIEVE IN, IS A GREAT ONE.
