

Stouffville beats Stouffville in final

BY JIM THOMAS
Correspondent

One thing was certain when the York Region Soccer League played in the girls' under-16 cup championship Saturday in Collingwood.

A team representing the Whitchurch-Stouffville Soccer Club would prevail.

Fielding two teams for last weekend's season-ending tournament, the Whitchurch-Stouffville Soccer Club saw both entries reach the final.

In the end, the firsts edged the seconds 2-1 on penalty kicks.

Lauren Barber scored for the firsts and Sophia Plank replied for the seconds in regulation time.

With no score through two, 15-minute halves, the firsts outscored the seconds 4-2 during the shootout session.

Emily DiMarco, Rebecca Parry, Lauren Barber and Kristen Slemko scored for the firsts. Kelly Sullivan and Kaylin Nauta replied for the seconds.

Kelly Doran was named the game's MVP for the firsts and Ava Maltezos for the seconds.

Buoyed by two goals from Barber and one from Parry, the firsts edged East Gwillimbury 3-1 in their semi-final game.

The seconds, meanwhile, required penalty kicks to edge Unionville-Milliken 2-1.

Sophia Plank scored the second's lone goal in regulation time.

Sullivan and Plank scored for the seconds in the shootout.

Other team members on the firsts included: Jessica King, Reena Bhagani, Jennifer Warnes, Bobby Empringham, Lija Schneider, Kathy Freidbacher, Bethany Chekay, Kelsey Bolender, Tina Ross, Jillian Scheliga, Rebecca Pappas, Heather Smyth and Melissa Menzies. The team was coached by Vince Parry.
