

LINKING UP WITH GOLFING LEGEND

Eleven-year-old Markham resident Gajan Sivabalasingham had the opportunity of a lifetime last Monday when he met professional golfing legend Arnold Palmer at Sick Children's Hospital in Toronto. Gajan, who is one of the top young golfers in Canada, was invited to meet Palmer because of his efforts to raise money for the hospital foundation through his charity golf tournament.

REMOTE WIRELESS SURVEILLANCE SYSTEMS AFFORDABLE

WWW.DSS-CANADA.CA

416-423-1377

DSS
DYNAMIC SURVEILLANCE SYSTEMS

Chilton cards first victory on pro tour

Gord Chilton captured his first Great Lakes Tour Ben Hogan series event Tuesday at Watson's Glen Golf Club in Whitby after carding a course record six-under par 66 in the one-round event.

The victory by the 31-year-old Markham native moved him up the Order of Merit standings and further solidified his spot in the Great Lakes Tour Championship - Moe Norman Cup in October.

A member of Whitevale Golf and Country Club and graduate of Markham District High School, Chilton captured the event by one shot over Martin Price, Ron Kenesky, Eric Couture and Tom Schupp, who each finished in a tie for second. He also pocketed $1,500.

SPORTS DIGEST

Lightning kick up a storm

Nicholas Lambis scored a goal to propel the Markham Lightning first team to the York Region Soccer League under-10 boys' championship last weekend in Collingwood with a 1-0 win over the York United Tigers in the title tilt.

In semifinal action, the Lightning received two goals from Lambis and a solid netminding effort from Konrad Pirokowski to blank the Barrie Spirit 2-0.

The Lightning also received major contributions from Luke Dippolito, Dalton Hnatko, Jonathan Ashford, Jay Samuels, Brayden Jones, Matthew Thomas, Daniel Cramarossa and Andrew DiNatale.

Firsts tackle second win

Scott Larmer scored two tries while Mick Schaer added one and Colin Campbell Jr. booted two converts to ignite the Markham Rugby Football Club men's firsts to a 19-14 road win over the Brampton Beavers in Ontario Rugby Union action last Saturday.

The win by the firsts improved their record to 2-10.

In other games, the Markham seconds received a try from Neil Evans in a 38-5 loss.

The firsts and seconds will face the Brantford Harlequins today at Austin Park at 1:30 p.m.

Hooked any kids lately?

When teens ask you for cigarettes, caring means saying no.

stop... think about it!

NOT TO KIDS!

Supplying tobacco to anyone under 19 is against the law

Canada

Production of this advertisement has been made possible by a financial contribution from Health Canada.

www.ntk.ca

HOW WOULD YOU LIKE TO SAVE THE WORLD AFTER LUNCH?

Simply RECYCLED!

Waste Management • 905-415-7535

Space provided through the Canadian Newspaper Association and Ontario Community Newspaper Association and their members as part of Stewardship Ontario's Blue Box Program in co-operation with the Waste Diversion Organization.

Eventing Canada (II) presents

An evening with
Amy Sky and Marc Jordan
With the Unionville High School Choirs and Orchestra

Saturday October 29th, 2005
Markham Theatre
8:00pm

Amy Sky
Marc Jordan

On stage, Amy delivers enrapturing concerts. Amy's written for artists such as Reba McEntire, Anne Murray, Diana Ross, Olivia Newton-John, Sheena Easton, Heart and others. A truly gifted artist and singer, and an awe-inspiring performer.

Marc is a latter-day torch singer who melds traditional jazz elements with darkly poetic and thought-provoking contemporary lyrics. As a composer and lyricist, Marc is known for songs he's written for Cher, Joe Cocker, Holly Cole, Amanda Marshall, and Ron Stewart.

Tickets - $45.00
Markham Theatre Box Office
(905) 305-SHOW (7469)

Net proceeds of the concert will benefit the activities of registered charities Eventing Canada and the Ontario SPCA York Region Branch.