

Morad to get behind wheel of racing car next year

Markham youth to race in F2000 series

Daniel Morad will be moving up in the world of motorsport racing next season.

Currently performing in the formula senior karting circuit, the 15-year-old Markham resident will be going behind the wheel of a race car as he was one of four drivers chosen to represent Sunoco's Team Ultra 94 for the 2006 Bridgestone Academy F2000 series.

Morad's selection was based on his performance at the recent fourth Sunoco Ron Fellows Karting Championship Evaluation Day at the Mosport Driver Development track just north of Bowmanville.

Morad was also the youngest performer of the four chosen to make the grade.

"I was really worried," Morad said prior to hearing his name announced as one of the chosen four. "They called three names the normal number of drivers selected and I wasn't called. Then they announced my name fourth - they did them alphabetically - and I was extremely happy. I have some great teammates on the Sunoco team for 2006."

Fellows, like in the past, told how difficult it was to pick four of the 11 drivers.

"It gets harder each year, but luckily this year, with the help from Sunoco and the Bridgestone Academy, we were able to select four drivers."

Over the last three years, a Sunoco Team Ultra 94 driver has won the championship, starting with Matt Champagne in 2003, Frank Launi in 2004, and Markham resident Marco Di Leo in 2005.

FOCUS ON BUSINESS

The Town Plumber Bathroom Renovations

The Town Plumber, owned and operated by Ross Newlands, has been a huge success in providing beginning to end customer care throughout the bathroom renovation process. And it's no wonder! They say that when you love what you do, it shows. Ross, with over 25 years in the plumbing trade and a background of industrial plumbing under his belt, definitely loves the business; the people; all of it!

People look to renovating their bathroom for various reasons. Leaking is a common bathroom problem that requires attention. Newer supplies offered these days can remedy the problem and provide limitless durability to you renovation. Sometimes relocating the fixtures in a bathroom can give you a whole new look and feel and free up cramped space. Additionally, many look to renovating a dated bathroom for re-sale purposes. New bathrooms are a big plus when listing your home for sale. The return on your investment is typically quite high. If you've ever considered renovating a bathroom in the past but feel that you may sell your home in the near future, don't wait. Why not enjoy the room now and reap the benefits of the pay-back later?

- Does your bathroom need renovating, updating or repair?
- Would you find relaxation by immersing yourself in a deep soaker-tub after a busy day?
- Do you think that there may be a better way to design your bathroom to maximize space and utilization?

If you answered "yes" to any of the questions above, you may want to call The Town Plumber.

Using local and reputable suppliers, Ross will direct you to showrooms and has built a strong rapport with the owners of the businesses so that you will receive the attention you need when making choices of tiles, tubs, fixtures, etc. Ross co-ordinates your whole job with his qualified tradespeople and ensures that most clients have a full bathroom completed within 7-9 working days.

Ross is a people person who prides himself in his commitment to the customer and their full satisfaction in the finished product. He is sensitive to the customer's needs (i.e. communication, cleanliness and quality work). The Town Plumber has customers in Markham, Stouffville and Unionville with jobs scaling from shower re-tiling to upscale renovations. Ross would be pleased to assess your bathroom renovation needs and provide you with a free estimate.
