Board of trade honours excellence

More than 500 people attended a gala Thursday evening at a Markham hotel to salute this year's winners of the local board of trade's awards of excellence.

Masters of ceremony Jacqueline Betterton and George Tsioutsoulas, hosts of Daytime York Region on Rogers Television joined guest speaker Paul McCabe and entertainer Brian Roman in honouring a golf course, an operations systems company, a cereal manufacturer, book publisher, law firm, construction company, an engineering group and a social service organization.

Representatives of the winning companies and groups took to the stage at the Hilton Suites hotel.

Winners include Sunny Crunch Foods Ltd. for entrepreneurship, Capital Networks Ltd. for international trade, MacViro Consultants Inc. for standards and working conditions, Fairmount Books Inc. for innovation, Angus Glen Golf Club for quality and service, Vanbots Construction Corp. for business achievement, Miller Thompson Legal Law Practise for community relations and cultural enrichment, Chapel Ridge Funeral Home and Cremation Centre, winner of the Anthony Roman award and The Centre for DREAMS Inc. for the award of merit.
