

Volunteer Cliff Moss made helping out fun

Markham and Whitchurch-Stouffville have lost a friend.

Funeral services were held in Markham Thursday for Norman Clifford Moss.

Described as a selfless individual, the 89-year-old died last Tuesday.

The owner of Markham's B&M Motors, Mr. Moss was president of the Unionville Kwanis Club, founder of Visually Important People of the Heritage Centre and a volunteer for Big Brothers and the Canadian National Institute for the Blind.

He was also a strong supporter of the Salvation Army, a fundraiser for Markham Stouffville Hospital and a volunteer at Participation House, a facility for adults with multiple disabilities.

"Cliff's many selfless contributions of time, energy and financial support to The Salvation Army in Markham will never be forgotten," Pastor Capt. Rob Pollett said. "From the funding of a new van for our Family Services and church ministries to the countless hours spent manning the Christmas kettles to his local involvement in regular church activities, Cliff had a lasting impact in a very deep and personal way. Though in his later years, he was not able to physically give of himself, he continued to support us with his encouragement and laughter."

Mr. Moss had many friends at Participation House, a facility for adults with multiple disabilities.

"He volunteered for us from the get-go in the early 70s," Participation House's day service manager Jackie Booth said. "Cliff had helped written all over him. He was generous and had a great sense of humour. Nothing was too much for him. Cliff made a difference in the community."

Mr. Moss lived in Stouffville during the 1990s.

"His great sense of humour kept him going," his daughter Vi Faucet said. "His sense of fun kept him going for a long time."

Along with his daughter and her husband Paul Faucet, Mr. Moss leaves his loving wife, Bertha, and other children Ray and his wife Pat and Lynda. He's also survived by six grandchildren and 15 great grandchildren and a host of friends. Mr. Moss was predeceased by Isobel, his beloved wife of 56 years and three brothers.
