

Trade puts Guadagnolo on ice

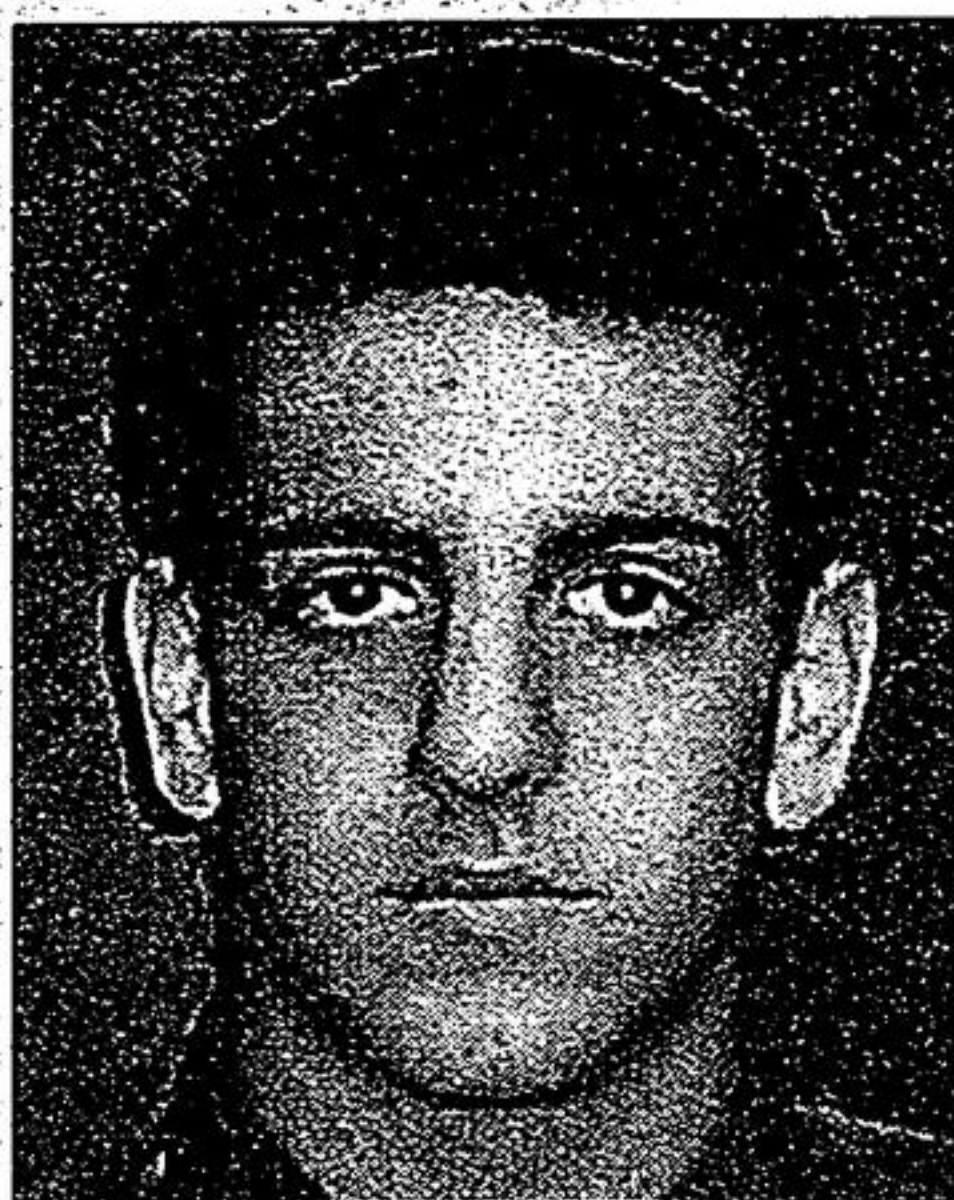

BY MIKE HAYAKAWA
Staff Writer

Anthony Guadagnolo became one happy individual Tuesday.

The 19-year-old Unionville resident will get back to doing what he wants most.

And that's stopping pucks. Leaving the Ottawa 67's Ontario Hockey League club in September due to what he felt was a lack of playing time, the former Markham Waxers junior A goalkeeper was informed by his former team he was dealt to the Windsor Spitfires along with centre Adam Sponseller and Ottawa's first-round Canadian Hockey League import selection in 2006.

In exchange, the 67's will receive Windsor's first-round CHL import selection in 2006.

ANTHONY GUADAGNOLO: Unionville resident happy to be back on ice after one-month layoff.

"I'm pretty happy now," Guadagnolo said from his new Windsor residence Wednesday. "I'll get to play a lot. That's all I can ask. I just have to go out there and show it."

Posting a 3.29 goals against average in 34 games with the 67's last season, Guadagnolo had a feeling the Spitfires would be calling him as he was told Ottawa gave Windsor permission to talk with him before the deal was finalized.

"I'm just happy to be there," he said despite the fact the club has won just three of 13 league tilts through Wednesday.

Guadagnolo joins a club that has endured highly-publicized turmoil, following the suspension of Moe Mantha as general manager for one season and 40 games as head coach that stemmed from a hazing incident on a road trip and team practice earlier this season.

"Hopefully I can help this club get more wins."

Foy pockets game puck in 9-3 win

Michael Foy pocketed the game puck in the Stouffville Spirit dressing room Thursday night, a gift from his teammates.

Foy, cousin of Minnesota Wild forward Matt Foy, had two goals and was named player of the game as the Spirit (7-3-2-3) opened up a 9-1 lead and coasted to a 9-3 win over the Ajax Attack (3-12-0-1) in Provincial Jr. A Hockey League action at the Stouffville Arena.

Foy was credited with two goals earlier in the season.

"But they were phantoms," said Foy. "They bounced in or went in off somebody. These two count, they say."

Jake Van Allen, Brock Ouellet, Rob Groom, Cory Batista, Will Acton, Shawn Frank and Scott Brown had singles.

James McIntosh, Rick Schrank, Van-Allen, Frank and Ouellet had two assists each.

The Spirit outshot the Attack 66-29. Dan McWhinney picked up the win.

Foy made the jump from North Toronto AA midget to the Spirit this year, showing tremendous speed during training camp. Those wheels were turning Thursday.

"I'm getting more comfortable here and getting more ice," the Markham resident said. "It's a big jump from AA. But this is where I wanted to play. It's an organization with a great reputation that's close to my home."

The Spirit, which played at Couchiching last night, hosts Collingwood Thursday.
