

M & M Meat Shops helps abused animals

Couples wins trip to Hawaii

Two Stouffville business people started helping animals and ended up winning airfare to Hawaii.

M & M Meat Shops, whose Stouffville franchise is run by Jo-Anne and Paul Guest, were one of the sponsors of a major fundraiser for the Ontario Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals.

Net proceeds from a concert in Markham last weekend featuring

Canadian musicians Amy Sky and Marc Jordan, along with choirs and an orchestra from Unionville High School went to Eventing Canada and the Ontario SPCA, York Region branch.

All M & M Meat Shops franchise owners from York Region were at the concert.

After meeting the two musicians after the show, a draw was held with Mr. and Mrs. Guest winning the Hawaii trip through Jungle Interiors in Markham.

This Saturday, all York Region M &

M Meat Shops are holding barbecues from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. to benefit the OSPCA.

They are also donating 10 per cent of sales inside the store to the cause.

The franchise's main fundraiser over the years has been the Crohn's and Colitis Foundation, for which it has raised more than $10 million.

Ms Guest wants to see the OSPCA fundraiser become a yearly event.
