Stairs to Heaven make wheelchair lift possible

The Stairs to Heaven campaign has made Stouffville United Church accessible to everyone.

The church's young people were a driving force in spearheading the campaign, which raised funds for a modern chairlift, associate minister Dianne Graves said.

Stairs to Heaven were sold by the church's Youth Spirit group at $500 each to defray the cost of the $18,000 chairlift. Any amount raised over this goes toward an accessible washroom.

Youth Spirit members help out with church events, including leading the children's worship in music. The teenagers have made a variety of crafts to be sold at the GST event and the UCW bazaar Nov. 12.

There are two other fundraising events for the chairlift: a Saturday gala dinner and GST auction with silent and live auctions of goods, services and talents contributed by members of the congregation and a Yuletide House Tour Dec. 4 sponsored by the Youth Spirit.

During the tour from 1:30 to 5 p.m., Youth Spirit members will have a Victorian Tea Room and Christmas gift boutique at the church for those going on the house tour. The teenagers will also be babysitting during the G.S.T. event.

Tickets for the house tour are $15 each and available at the church or at Candlelight and Memories on Main Street in Stouffville.

The chairlift is being dedicated Nov. 20.

For information, call the church at 905-640-1163.
