

Nice payday for Nicol's rink

Hollie Nicol and her Unionville Curling Club came home with a nice paycheck when they ventured to London last weekend to take part in the Junior Cash Spiel.

The 18-year-old Markham skip, along with her team of vice Jennifer Scott, 19, second Jackie Masongsong, 17, and lead Jenna Bonner, 17, pocketed $1,200 after winning all seven games.

It was capped off with an 8-4 victory over Marika Bakewell's rink from Dixie in the final.

The event, which was part of the Ontario Junior Curling Tour, included a field of 24 junior women teams from Quebec and Ontario, plus the Swiss national junior champions.

"This was a major win for us because it's one of the major stops on the tour," said John Nicol, Hollie's father and coach.

He attributed their rink's success to experience it gained two weeks prior in a London cash spiel on the Canadian Ladies Curling Tour. The event included several rinks that competed in last year's Scott Tournament of Hearts championship.

In that event, Nicol's rink won four of seven matches and just missed out on a berth in the quarter-finals.

"That event definitely gave us confidence," he said.

The next event for Nicol's rink is the Junior SuperSpiel Invitational this weekend in Ottawa.

Hockey captain on the Internet

Jon Smyth is going interactive.

A 23-year-old Markham resident, who is team captain of the Colgate University Raiders men's hockey club, has started an online blog which is accessible through the Hamilton, N.Y. school's athletics website, www.goColgateRaiders.com/mhockey, or directly at colgate.blogs.com/studentathletes2/.

A former member of the Stouffville Spirit junior A hockey club, Smyth will be posting about three times a week throughout the season about hockey as well as his classroom experiences and extracurricular activities.

Smyth said he's excited about the prospects of revealing his experiences in his final season and is looking forward to interacting with fans through it.

Mott earns all-star berth

Dan Mott, a Markham resident and graduate of Markham District High School, was recently selected to the Quebec University Football Conference all-star team.

A fifth-year wide receiver and co-captain of the Montreal-based Concordia University Stingers, Mott was a unanimous selection to the team.

In seven games, Mott led the conference in receiving with 38 catches for 495 yards and two touchdown receptions.

Juveniles fall short in final

The Stouffville juvenile Clippers advanced to the final of the Pickering tournament before settling for second place with a 7-1 loss to Leaside in the championship tilt.

In reaching the final, the Clippers defeated St. Catharines 1-0, Leaside 2-1 and Richmond Hill 6-5 and 3-2. Scoring for the Clippers were: Josh Spang five goals, two assists; Alex Bruno two goals; Jon Wonch one goal, two assists; Mike Manson one goal, one assist; Jordan Smalley and James Guinane one goal each; Nik Ristich four assists; Adam Craig two assists; Chris Schell, Kevin Rainbow, Norm Fretz and Landon Wideman one assist each. Ryan Allen and Robert Von Engelbrechten played in net.
