COLDS & FLUS

In the book SHARK LIVER OIL, written by four medical doctors, Dr. Hubert says that since his own high-school age children took shark liver oil as a prevention they have no more colds, whereas their school mates all have colds and flus, many a number of times each year as all parents know so well. A 65 year old man reports he had no more colds or flus for 9 years since he started to take shark liver oil. Dr. Haimes's grandchildren have been taking shark liver oil for 6 months and he writes they have no infection of any kind since. What's important is that Bell Shark Liver Oil has 25%-27% active AKG (alkoxyglycerols) and high squalene and omega-3 fatty acids content. The gel caps are easy to take and they're inexpensive.
