

Bears invade SDSS

There's a reason students may be carrying teddy bears around at Stouffville District Secondary School this week.

They're bringing the stuffed toys to support a fundraiser brought to the school by 17-year-old Kayla Lightfoot.

The Teddy Bear Affair supports the Hospital for Sick Children with donations of money and teddy bears to help comfort patients at the hospital.

The fundraiser was started by Whitchurch-Stouffville resident Bonnie Schultz in 2002 with a silent auction.

This year's goal is 1,000 teddy bears and $40,000 in donations.

This is the first year the Teddy Bear Affair has come to SDSS. Kayla noted a family member is a patient at the hospital for children in downtown Toronto.

This week, SDSS students can donate to The Teddy Bear Affair during lunch hours.

Funds raised to go the charity, Kayla noted.

Anyone who wants to donate a teddy bear or contribute funds can do so by mailing to: Dorothy Schroeder, Enbridge Gas Distribution, 500 Consumers Rd., North York, Ont. M2J 1P8.
