

Couple performs original tunes at cafe

A Stouffville couple performs original rock, folk and pop music at The Undergrounds Cafe Saturday beginning at 8 p.m.

The cafe is located in EastRidge Church on Tenth Line, north of Main Street in Stouffville.

Oriana, who are Orest and Liana Hrynewich, has a passion for writing songs. Mr. Hrynewich has studied jazz guitar and is classically trained in piano with the Royal Conservatory of Music.

He composes music for TV and film and in the evenings teaches guitar, bass guitar and drums. Mrs. Hrynewich, who has been singing since she was a teenager, gives voice lessons.

Doors open at 7:30 p.m. with Oriana performing at 8 p.m.

The cafe features homemade desserts, specialty coffees and teas. This is an all-ages event. Donations are accepted.

14-year-olds campaign against drunk driving

Two 14-year-olds are hoping to get the message about the dangers of impaired driving out to Stouffville District Secondary School students in time for the school's semi-formal Friday.

Lauren Elliott and Laura Harries are spearheading Sober Stouffville Against Drunk Driving (SSADD). Their campaign has support from the national Students Against Drunk Driving organization. They are also working with the Character Matters committee at SDSS.

SSADD is making announcements and holding events to give students strategies for arriving alive after semi-formal. One major emphasis is having someone to call at any time to be picked up.

Fresh Roasting Chickens

About once a month, we receive into our store some extra large roasting chickens. These are rather special birds as they have never been fed antibiotics or hormones. They also taste delicious! They will be available fresh on Friday and Saturday of this week, and then we always carry them frozen ($2.75 per lb).

As well, it is not too early to think about Christmas Baking. A complete list of all of our cookies, squares and other goodies is now available in the store and on our web-site, www.reesorfarmkitchen.com.

STEPS is a charity devoted to connecting recovering alcoholics and addicts with real job training so that they can get real jobs and create a real life—and stay clean and sober. ■ STEPS' does not believe in a hand out. ■ We believe in a hand up. We believe in helping recovering alcoholics get off social assistance and find the dignity and self esteem that gainful employment provides. ■ It's the "give a man a fishing rod, not a fish" idea. ■ And we've seen it work. ■ We collect gently used shoes, clothing, house wares and cell phones. 100% of the proceeds from these go towards STEPS' charitable initiatives. That's 100%. ■ Your used stuff is our fresh start. Please—drop by, donate what you don't need and say hello. We'll be there to say thank you.
