

OUR PHOTOGRAPHERS SHOW OFF THEIR BEST 2005 IMAGES

Hannah McVeigh released a tagged monarch butterfly at Blue Willow Nursery's conservatory in Baldwin. Susie Kockerscheidt was there to make the picture.

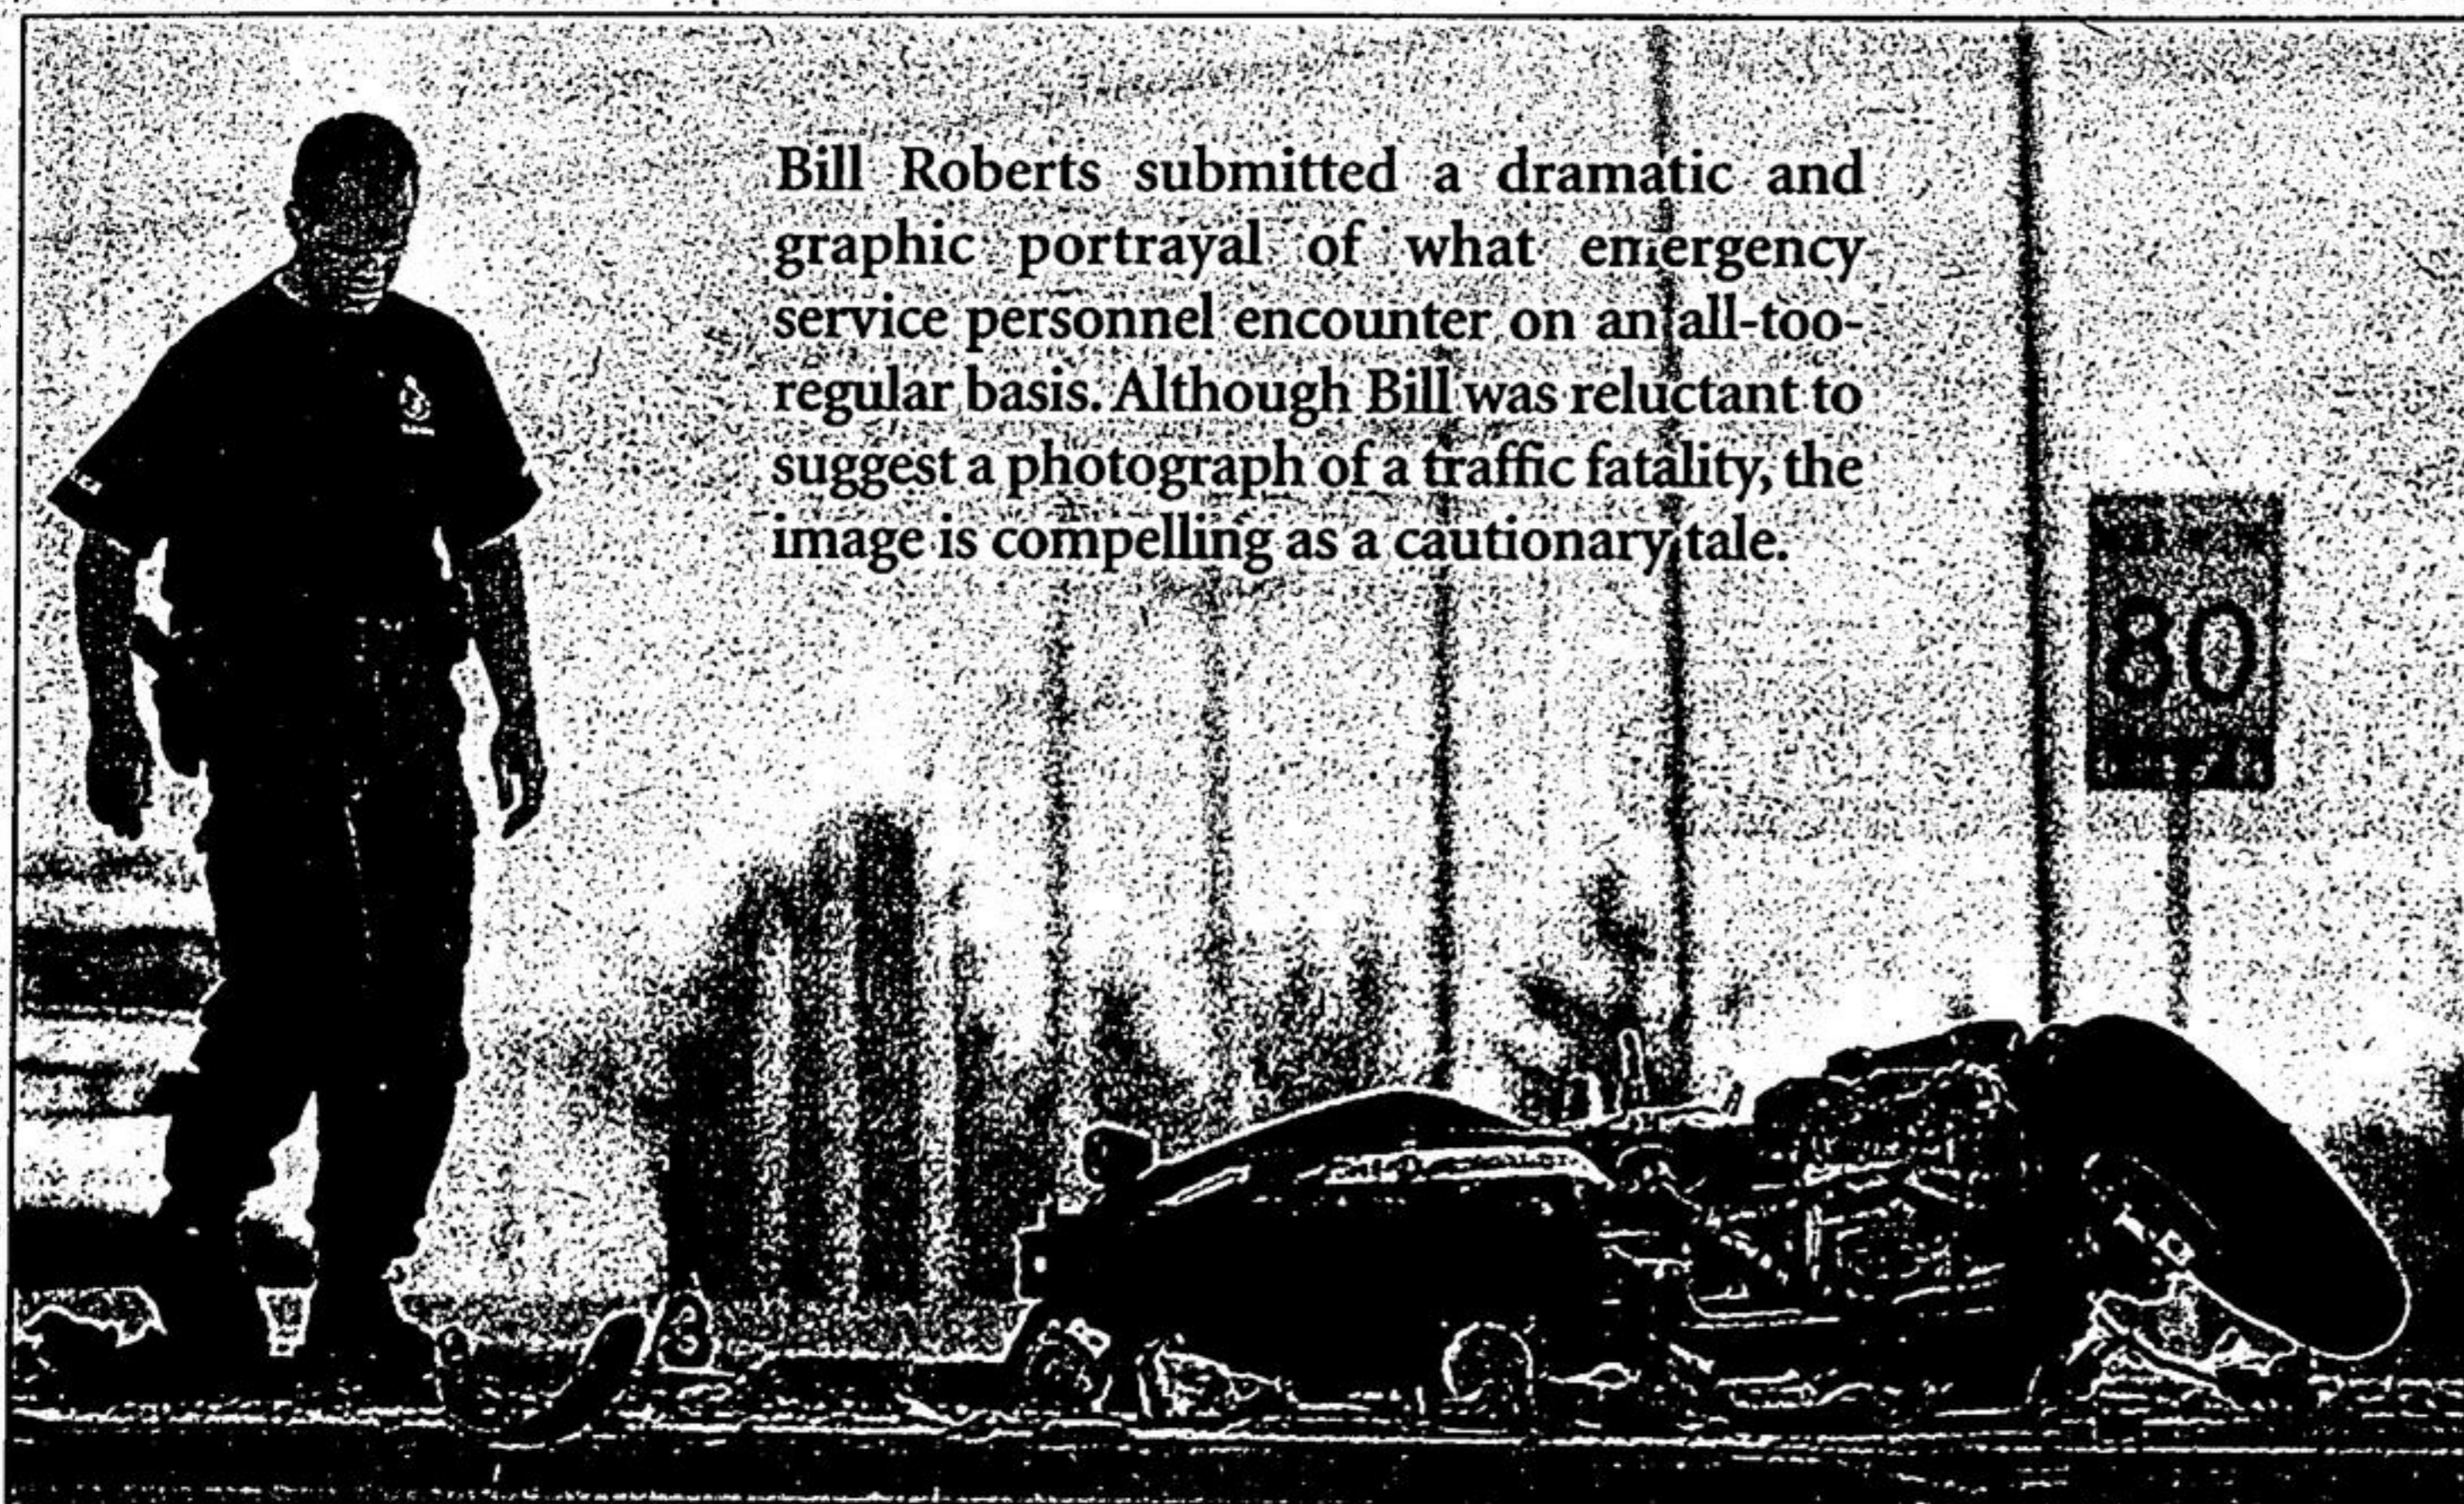

Daniel Bolton did a great job of posing while Mike Barrett set two flashes to light this illustration on apple season, set against a sunny sky.

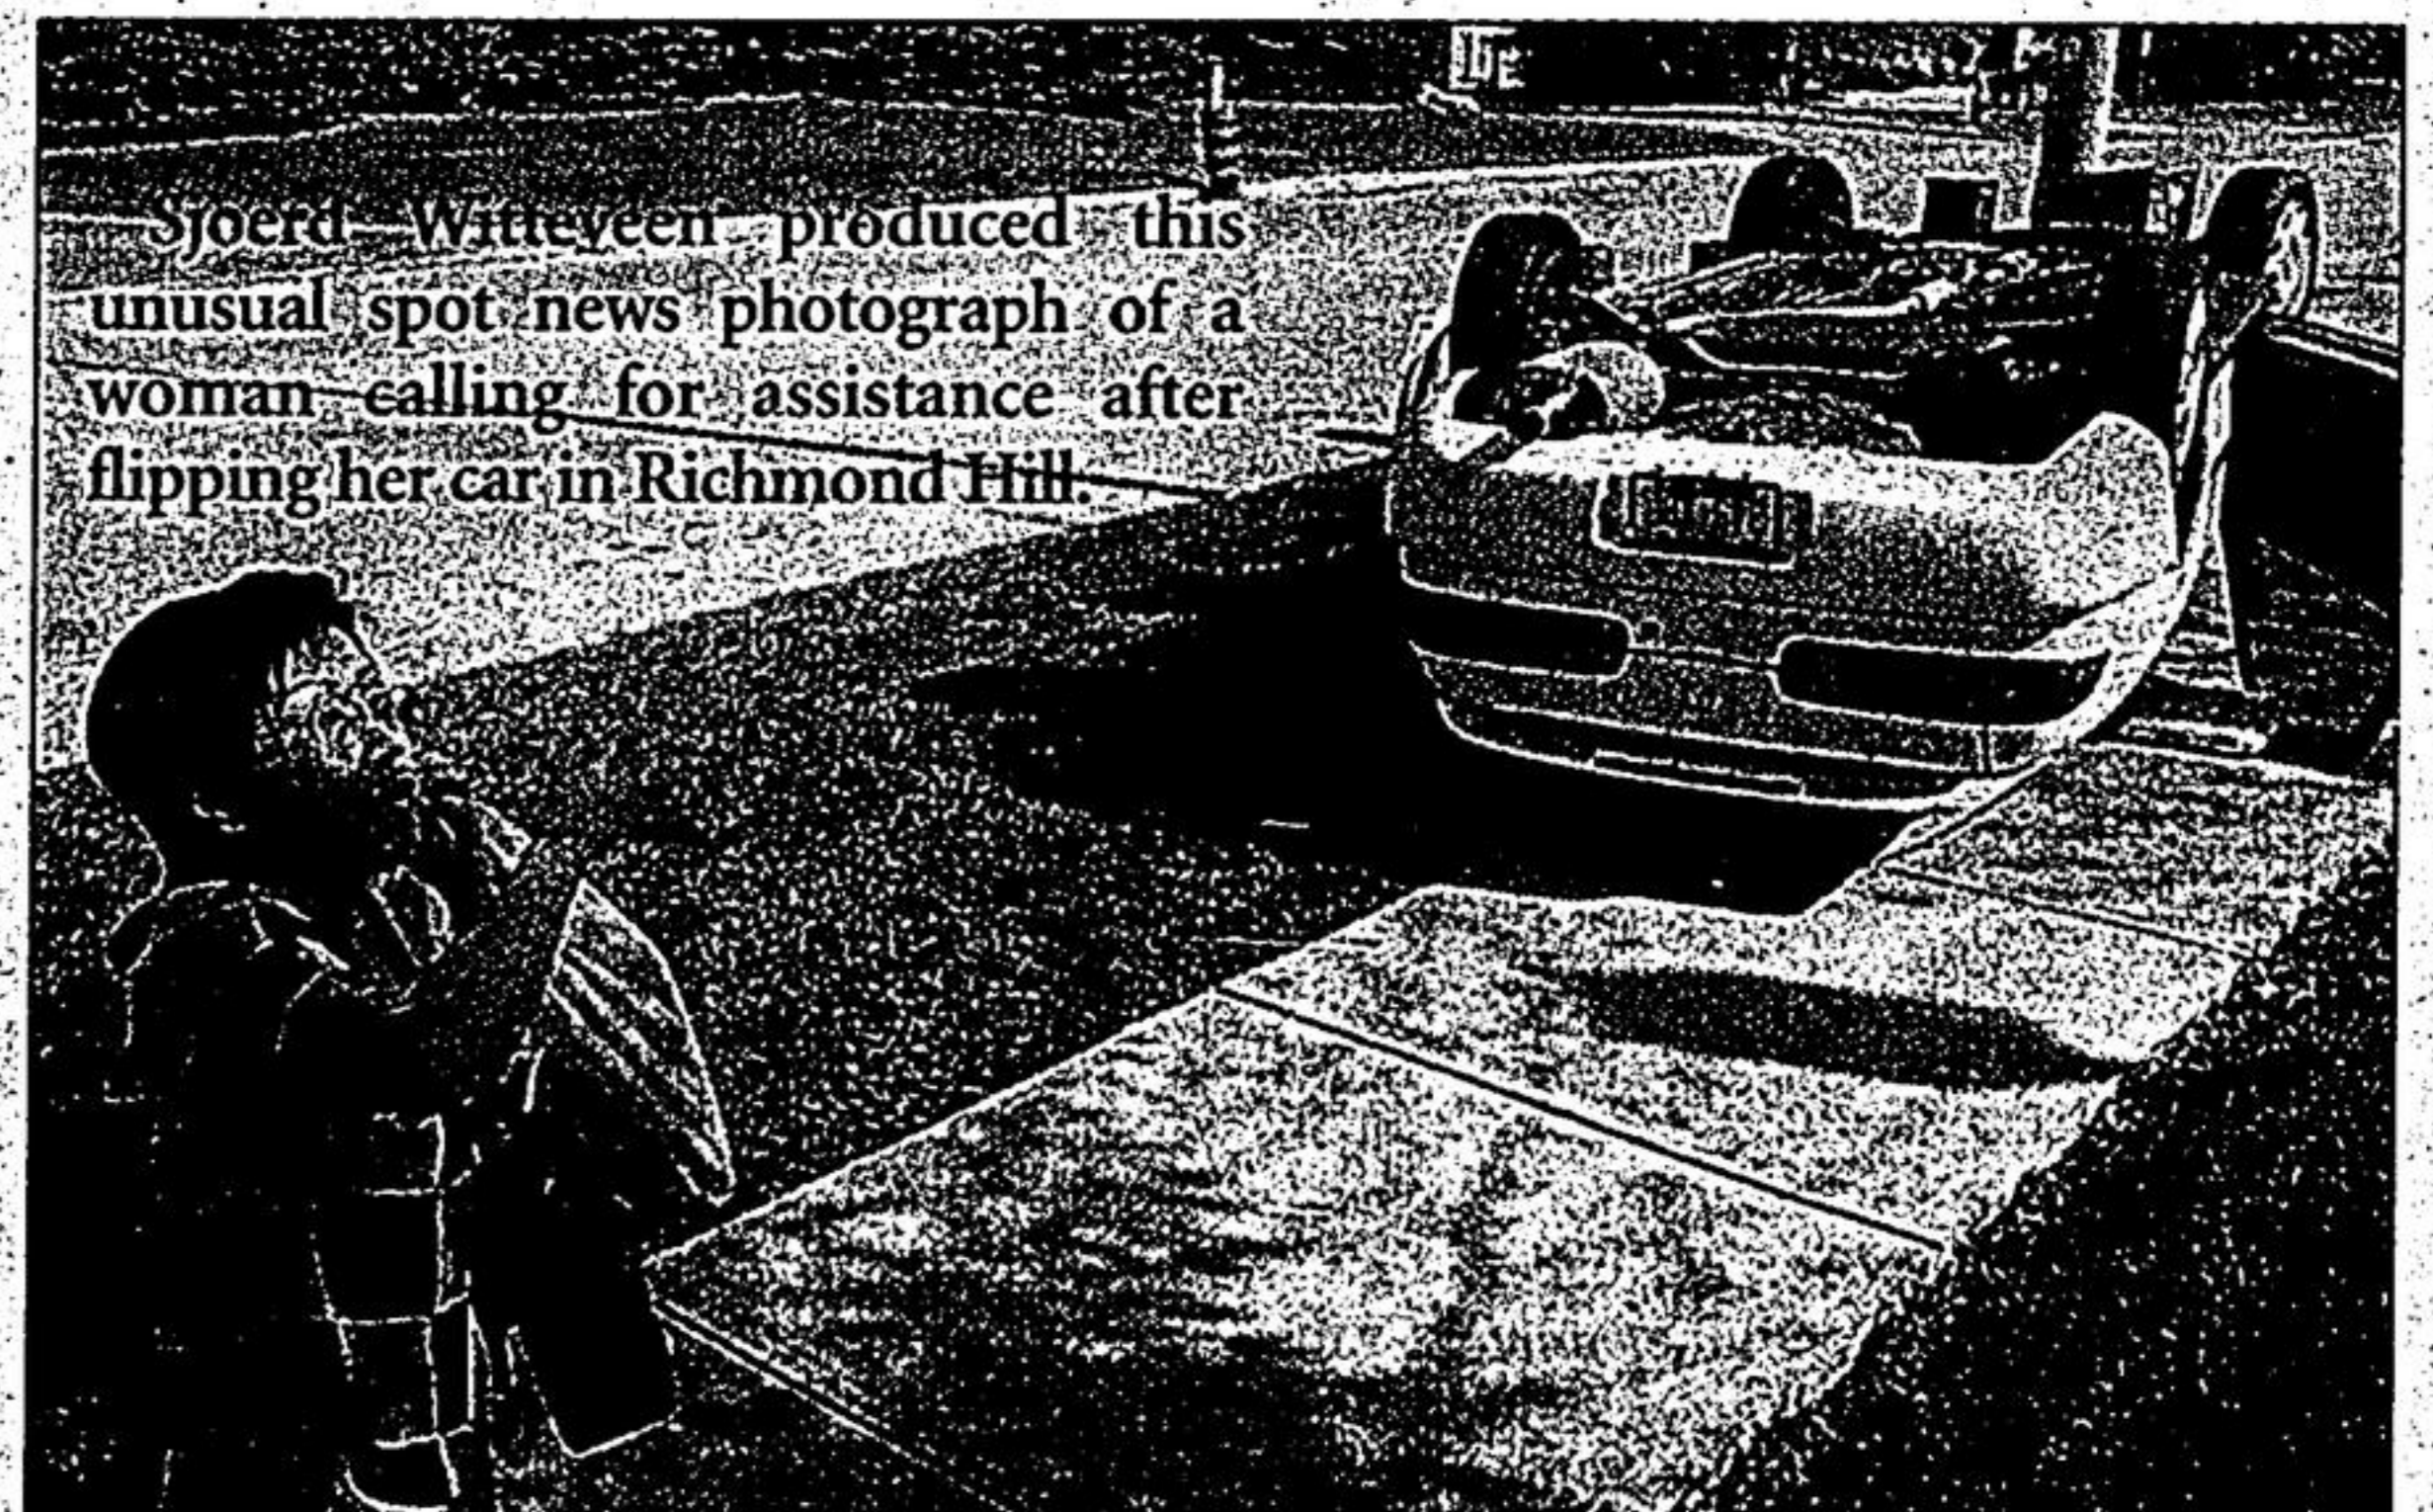

CAPTURING TOP MOMENTS

Light being a strong symbol to many Anglicans, the church's sexton (caretaker) Brent Taylor, with daughter Fiona in tow, are amazed by the dazzling bright light offered up by this unique window on a stairway and recorded by Steve Somerville.

Bill Roberts submitted a dramatic and graphic portrayal of what emergency service personnel encounter on an all-too-regular basis. Although Bill was reluctant to suggest a photograph of a traffic fatality, the image is compelling as a cautionary tale.

Sjoerd Witteveen produced this unusual spot news photograph of a woman calling for assistance after flipping her car in Richmond Hill.
