

Legion bowlers advance to provincial championships

BY JIM THOMAS
Correspondent
Six Stouffville bowlers representing Branch 459 of the Royal Canadian Legion, have advanced to the provincial legion championships, April 29 at Burlington.

Captain Tom Lehman, Mark Fockler, Pete Sinclair, Glenn Jackson, Ron Middleton and Don Forbes will test their skills against some of Ontario's best after winning the zone title in Newmarket and placing second in the district at Midland. In addition to team competition, Fockler and Jackson will compete in doubles and Lehman in singles.

The tournament is hosted by Waterdown Legion.

Should the Stouffville entry be successful, they will go on to compete in the Nationals in British Columbia.

Judokas earn honours

Four members of the Stouffville-based Sheffield Judo Club returned with medals after giving a stellar performance at the Ontario Novice Championships in Toronto.

Lea Sheffield, 13, was first in the green belt-middleweight division.

Second-place finishes went to Marcus Chan, 10, in the orange belt-lightweight division and Tressa Sheffield, 11, green belt-lightweight.

Noah Viitala, 6, finished third in the white belt/lightweight division.
