

Swimmers splash hit in Toronto pool

The Stouffville Swim Club completed its short course season recently at the University of Toronto on a positive note with team competitors exhibiting continued personal improvement.

Jake Silverthorn, 10, became the first swimmer from Stouffville to qualify for provincials.

His first-place time of 1:24.26 in the 100m butterfly gave him top 10 ranking in Canada in his age group.

Silverthorn also had two seconds in the 100m backstroke and 50m butterfly and two fourths in the 50m freestyle and 50m breaststroke.

Kevin Boehnke, 14, recorded all best times and managed to break the 40-second mark in the 50-meter breaststroke with a third-place time of 38.26.

Boehnke was also 10th in the 50m freestyle and 11th 200m individual medley.

Beth Wideman, 16, also went under the 40-second mark in the 50m breaststroke with a fourth-place time of 39.89.

Wideman also finished fourth in the 100m breaststroke, eighth in the 50m and 100m freestyle and 50m butterfly and was 19th in the 200m individual medley.

Bethany Philpott, 15, picked up five personal best times. Among her better efforts were in the 100m and 200m freestyle as she was timed in 1:08.63 and 2:29.98 respectively.

Jaimee Mellor-Hill, 12, fielded three personal best times.

She placed top 20 in four events and broke the forty-second mark in the 50m butterfly, with a time of 39.00.

Lauren Wallis, 17, recorded three personal best times and placed sixth in 50m freestyle, seventh 100m backstroke, 10th 50m butterfly and 11th 50m backstroke.

Jaime Silverthorn, 8, achieved 100 per cent best times, while competing against girls three years older than her.

Dylan Cook, 10, placed in the top 25 in all four of his events.

The Stouffville Swim Club is always looking for new members.

Novice AE Clippers sweep East Gwillimbury

Cody Leonard and Liam Timewell each scored twice to lead the Stouffville novice AE Clippers to a 7-1 home ice win over East Gwillimbury last Friday and a three-game sweep of the best-of-five York Simcoe playoff series.

Sean McSwiggan added a goal and one assist while David Paisley and Tritan Thompson added single tallies. Joey Hutton and Quintin Volpe each earned two assists while James Merksamer, Braden Clarke and Darrion Simmons had one apiece.

The Clippers took a two games to none lead last Wednesday when Jackson Newlands scored twice and Nicholas Rabito played a stellar game in goal in a 2-0 win.

Leonard collected two assists and Hutton one.

In the series opener March 5, Volpe and Thompson each scored once and Rabito stopped every shot directed his way in a 2-0 road win.

The Clippers will face Innisfil in its next series, which began yesterday in Innisfil.
